Rapid Transit System Will Boost Community Income, Says Authority

"We feel that the main rapid transit stations will generate a tremendous amount of 'traffic' for the communities in which they are located, and hence will provide those communities with a financial boost."

This was the statement of Bill Stokes, director of information for the Bay Area Rapid Transit District as he explained the plans for rapid transit in Central Contra Costa County.

He was accompanied by H. H. LaVigne, project engineer for the district.

"The traffic generated by commuters and users of the rapid transit district should be tremendous," said Stokes. "It should be good for the merchants and should stimulate growth of the communities."

SUCH STATIONS will be located in Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, the edge of Pleasant Hill and Concord.

Explaining some of the difficulties encountered in planning for rapid transit in the county, LaVigne pointed out:

The Walnut Creek station poses a problem in that trains must be able to get in and out of the city at relatively high speeds. This means that you can only build curves with a limited radius . . . you can't run a train around too sharp a bend at 70 miles per hour.

Getting out of Walnut Creek to the north is easy . . . we just follow the Sacramento Northern right of way all the way to Concord It would be logical to follow the same right of way on the west side, but that is the routing that goes through Sun Valley and Saranap along the proposed Olympic Boulevard."

Then he added reflectively, "Nobody minds the stations . . . it's the routing between them that causes the trouble."

DISCUSSING THE difficulty of getting the system from Lafayette to Walnut Creek, LaVigne noted: that the freeway routing of the system is fine until it meets the Walnut Creek interchange.

"You can't go through that," he said. "Then there's the matter of the Shepherd Canyon interchange (to be built when the Shepherd Canyon freeway is constructed . . . possibly in about 10 years), but we can plan that in advance with the state."

In explaining the costs of construction for the transit system, LaVigne said that it costs about one-half million dollars per mile to construct tracks on the surface via the cut and fill method, and that tunneling costs about $10 million per mile."

The cost of tunneling under the Berkeley Hills nearly jeopardized the entire system as far as Contra Costa Count is concerned," he said.

HE ADMITTED that the freeway routing between Walnut Creek and Lafayette is feasible, but that it is more expensive by an estimated $5 million than the originally planned Olympic Boulevard routing.

He could not estimate how many homes would have to be removed in the Sun Valley area to accomodate the new routing.

The location of the Walden station was explained in terms of eventual service to the developed Ygnacio Valley area.

"All the people who use our system will first take their automobiles to get to the stations," said Stokes. "And the Gregory Gardens and Pleasant Hill people who are served by this station are only minutes away by car on the freeway.

"They have to get on the freeway anyway to get to the station. It won't take them more than a couple of minutes to drive to the proposed Walden station.

"On the other hand, when the Kirker Pass Freeway is constructed, that station will serve a large portion of the Antioch and Pittsburg people, as well as the Ygnacio Valley people, who will have access by Bancroft Road," he said.

THUS HE explained that the Walden location, although not located in the present center of development, is designed to serve a greater potential population by 1970.

The timetable for transit development is as follows:

The final report from the Tudor Engineering Company will be in the transit directors hands by May 1. Any corrections or last minute additions will be submitted by May 15 or May 30.

The financial report will be made by June 11 . . . tax base, bonding capacity, etc. Then the legal findings will be made by the transit board and the proposal will go the boards of supervisors of the various counties by June 15.

These boards must hold public hearings on the system Then, with their approval by September 1, the issue will be put on the November ballot.

Trustees Delay Answering Sun's Front Page Letter

Trustees of the Lafayette School District indicated this week they still are not prepared to release an answer to The Sun's open letter of two weeks ago.

But Boardman Moore, chairman of the school board, said the trustees have discussed the possibility of answering the letter publicly, but have reached no decision. He added the board may be ready to release the statement next week.

The Sun published a front page open letter to the trustees, asking them to reconsider their ban on student distribution of fluoridation information.

The letter also offered the school board equal space in which to answer the letter.

Donahue Gains New Kaiser Post

J. F. Donohue, 1 Rustic Way, has been named general manager of the products division of Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation, according to an announcement by T. J. Ready, Jr., executive vice president.

In his new position Donohue succeeds Howard C. Holmes of Lafayette, who was recently appointed a vice president of the corporation. He will direct the production and sales of Kaiser Aluminum consumer foil products, industrial foil, foil containers and building products.

Donohue joined the company in 1949 and served in various sales and staff positions in Oakland and at the Newark, Ohio, rod, bar, wire and cable mill before being named assistant manager of the Los Angeles sales office. Subsequently, he was manager of the Chicago district sales office. Most recently he has been special assistant to the corporation's president.

Cleanup Campaign Is Everybody's Project

Winding up Orinda's month-long cleanup campaign, the Miramonte Wheel Club, sponsored by the Orinda Rotary Club, stained planting tubs in the Crossroads area. Bill Brown is president of the Wheel Club.

Paint for the project was donated by Mason Mann and the Lawler Paint Store of Orinda.

The Pine Grove Parents Club, under the direction of Rudy Grah, planted 300 pine trees around the border of Pine Grove School.

Girl Scout Troop 97, under leaders Mrs. Moore Pilgrim and Mrs. Everett Harris, planted oak seedlings across from the Association station in the Crossroads area.

Al Winsor Takes Post As Chief

Today's the day Allen Winsor assumes the post of chief of the Orinda Fire Department.

Winsor, appointed by the board of fire commissioners late last year, succeeds Everett Wyatt who served in the post for 15 years and retired yesterday. Winsor has been with the department for several years and has served as assistant chief.

He announced the appointment of three men to posts as acting assistant chiefs pending a competitive examination. The three are Bob Miraglio, Lloyd Vasconcilles and Manuel Guido.

According to Winsor, the date of the examination will be announced later and it will be open to all captains in the department. The number of assistant chiefs to be permanently appointed is still to be determined, he added.

Young Violinists Will Play in Bach Junior Festival

Norita Jones, 16-year-old Miramonte senior, is one of 67 young Northern California musicians selected to appear during the seventh annual Junior Bach Festival to be held in Berkeley April 24 to May 1.

Also appearing will be Gregory D. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Moore, 1501 Trestle Glen Road, Oakland. Moore is an advertising representative of The Sun.

SELECTION WAS based on auditions in which a record number of youths participated. The artists, all under 21 years of age, are from several Northern California counties.

Miss Jones has studied the violin for eight years. Her teacher is Mrs. Beulah Logan, Berkeley. She will play the first and second movements of Bach's "Fourth Sonata in C Minor" for violin and piano.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jones, 22 Charles Hill Road, Orinda.

GREGORY MOORE, 13 years old, has studied the violin for four years. His present teacher is Nathan Rubin of Mills College. Gregory possesses absolute pitch. He will play two unaccompanied Bach dances.

Five concerts will be offered during the festival week, to present the 67 chosen artists. This is one more than in previous festivals. Three concerts will be offered in the Berkeley Little Theatre, one in Hertz Hall on the University of California campus, and one will be broadcast live from the studios of radio station KPFA.

Young Republicans Will Hold Meeting

The Orinda Young Republicans are organizing for the coming campaign. David R. Fuller is the president and David M. Van Hoesen is the vice president in charge of membership.

There will be a meeting of past and present members at the Casa Orinda on Thursday, April 14 at 8 o'clock. At that meeting, the future plans for the organization will be discussed and there will be a brief talk by a member of the Republican Party Central Committee. All persons interested are invited to attend.

On the last week-end in April, the organization will sponsor a champagne party at the Orinda Willows. The purpose of the party will be to increase the membership of the organization and to complete plans for future activities.

Any persons interested in participating or seeking more information may call Dave Fuller at DR 6-4354 or Dave Van Hoesen at CL 4-0838.

Miramonte Will Dedicate Community Pools Sunday

Sunday marks the official dedication day of Miramonte's new community pools. After the ceremony at 1 p.m. there will be an exhibition of swimming and diving, and following the exhibition, free swimming for all residents of the community.

The ceremonies will be held at the pools, located behind the Miramonte gym.

Acting as master of ceremonies will be Mario Guarneri, student body president. He will introduce speakers Bill Lee, Acalanes school board president; Ralph Hall, Acalanes school board member from Orinda; Neil Parsons, district superintendent; and Mrs. Robert Bowles, co-chairman of the pool committee.

DIVING exhibitions will be given by Andy DeGrossi and Rick Layne. Carolyn Schuler and Wayne Webster will participate in a 50-yard butterfly race.

Serving on the dedication planning committee are Randy Thaman, Judy Hopkins, Bob Welch and Sharlene Mossotto, Principal James Lewis and Maris Guarneri.

Everyone is invited to the pool opening. Mrs. Bowles says the pool committee extends a special invitation to the 2500 families who donated to the pool fund drive last year.

She says, "These are your pools your money built them. They really are something to be very proud of."

MRS. BOWLES has also announced the pools will be open Saturdays and Sundays during the school year if attendance is good, and daily except Monday during summer vacation. They will also be open during Easter vacation, weather permitting. A charge of 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults will be made to cover the operational expenses.

"Advance word has leaked out that there may be a very special VIP big splash. The people won't want to miss it," Mrs. Bowles said.

The pools were constructed at a cost of $60,000. Twenty-five thousand dollars came from donations in the Orinda, Moraga and Canyon areas, when 400 students went door-to-door in a fund-raising campaign. The Acalanes Union High School board provided the remainder.

THE SWIMMING pool is a 25-meter regulation pool, from three to 5½ feet deep. The diving pool has a depth of 12 feet, with high and low boards.

A Red Cross "Swim to Live" program is scheduled for the first two weeks after school.

Orinda Artist to Hold Exhibit of Wood Sculpture

The board of the Orinda Art Center is showing sculptures in wood by David Clay Jones for the month of April at the Orinda Library. Jones resides in Orinda and this is the second showing of his sculptures that has been exhibited at the library.

Jones' work is well known locally as so many of his sculptures have been purchased by Contra Costa residents. He is a former student of Bohus Benes and he says he finds inspiration in the forms and color of driftwood collected on the beaches of Northern California and Oregon.

His sculptures have been exhibited in the San Francisco and Berkeley Art Festivals and twice he has won popular awards at the Walnut Creek Pageant of Arts. One of his pieces entitled "Lady of the Knave" received the blue ribbon in sculpture at the Contra Costa Fair in 1959—this will also be shown in the present exhibit.

Jones by profession and training was an engineer before becoming interested in sculpture, and an outstanding tribute to his talent was made when he received an invitation from the directors to exhibit his "Madonna of the Mountain" at the Madonna Festival in Los Angeles in May of this year.

Phone Service At Cloverleaf Requested

Concern for the lack of available telephone service on a long stretch of road from the Orinda overcrossing to Pleasant Hill over crossing has resulted in the combined Improvement Clubs of Acalanes, Hidden and Happy Valleys submitting an urgent plea to the State Division of Highways.

Officers of the clubs learned from Pacific Telephone that the Highway Department has adopted a policy of resistance to telephone installations along the freeways.

The clubs specifically request that a telephone booth be installed at the bus stop on the turnout lane of the south side of the new Acalanes Road overcrossing, State Highway 24.

IN A LETTER to the Division of Highways, the presidents of the three clubs stated the community had a real need for telephone service at this site. A phone booth would be of vital service to motorists in trouble, such as a flat tire, and to bus commuters who use the isolated bus shelter. The shelter was recently constructed by volunteers from the same three improvement clubs.

Previously those who used this stretch of road had telephone service available in a booth on Orchard Nursery property. When the cloverleaf exchange was constructed this service was lost to commuters and has never been reinstated.

Pointing out that no outlay of money would be involved by the Highway Division, the letter asked that an exception be made to the policy of not permitting phone booth installations.

COPIES OF THE letter were sent to Mel Nielsen, chairman. Board of Supervisors; Howard Greenhalgh, manager, Pacific Telephone Company; Elliot Hartman, Diablo Highway Federation and the Lafayette Improvement Association.

Further requesting that the Division of Highways present acceptable reasons as to why their policy is practical in view of the great inconvenience to users of the highway, the letter was signed by Edwin Quinzel, president Acalanes Valley Improvement Association: Robert Kahn, president Happy Valley Improvement Association and Dr. Glenn Heltne.

Pack 211 Holds Dad-Son Dinner

Cub Scouts of Pack 211 turned out in force to hear council member Bill Talbot's story of the construction of the San Rafael Bridge, and for the annual father-and-son dinner which honored the fiftieth anniversary of Boy Scouts of America.

Bill Talbot, who was project engineer during the construction of the bridge, brought with him a scale model of the bridge so the Cubs could clearly understand the many phases of construction, which were shown with colored movies.

DURING THE dinner 15 former Lion Cubs were introduced as the new Webelo Den, now Den 135. After orientation to Boy Scouts, they will join Troop 207 under the direction of Scoutmaster Bill Gilmore.

The pack had a surprise when a huge cake commemorating the anniversary was presented to them by Phaires, Orinda. Adding the"a la mode," Hagstrom's donated the ice cream. The boys plan to send autographed pictures of the event to say "Thank you."

Plans for the annual Pinewood Derby will be discussed at the pack meeting tonight. The Derby will take place at Sleepy Hollow School at 7:30 p.m., April 22.

THE WINNING cars of 1959 and 1960, plus all the cars made in Pack 211, will be displayed in the front window of the American Trust Company in Orinda.

Six More Students Join Science Seminar

Additional Miramonte High School students have been selected to participate in the Miramonte Science Seminar. The six new students chosen on the basis of scholarship, scientific aptitude and interest are Jane Donlon, Fred Wright and Ken Wagner, freshmen; Alan Hill, sophomore; Sandy Corbett, junior, and Bob Hecocks, senior.

Panel Will Highlight Association Meeting

A panel discussion and debate on fluoridation will highlight the Orinda Association's annual general membership meeting at 8 p.m. Moday in the Miramonte High School cafeteria.

Mrs. Robert Haslam and Bruce Howard, co-chairmen of the event, said three speakers will argue on each side of the controversial topic. The discussion will be moderated by former Assemblyman Donald Doyle and District Attorney John Nejedly will discuss the legal aspects of fluoridation.

Mrs. Haslam said Nejedly's appearance is being sponsored by the association and not by either side of the panel.

MRS. MILLARD Simon of Orinda has arranged for the pro-fluoridation speakers, and she said they will include Dr. Karl H. Koenig, an Orinda dentist; Dr. Sheldon Margen, an internist and research biochemist; and Paul E. Wyszkowski, representative of the State Department of Public Health.

The anti-fluoridation speakers were scheduled by Colonel William C. Braly of Orinda and they will include Dr. George M. Sciorони, a physician-surgeon and vice chairman of the Fresno Pure Water League; John Martin Hoffman, an attorney; and Dr. Arthur B. MacWhinnie, a dentist.

Mrs. Haslam indicated present plans for the speakers call for the pro and con sides to be rotated during the discussion.

ALL ORINDA residents are invited to attend the meeting.

The co-chairmen said the meeting also will include an up-to-date report on the association's membership campaign, which has been extended to April 20. Mrs. Haslam said about 500 memberships have already been received, with three weeks remaining.

She noted that a family membership costs only $2 and may be obtained by writing to the association at P.O. Box 97, Orinda. Last year's membership totalled 850, and this year's goal is 1000. Every resident of Orinda is eligible for membership.

LES HINK JR., treasurer of the association, will present his report at the meeting, also.

Other items on the program include an explanation of how the association works by Dick Bartle, chairman of the planning committee, and the introduction of the group's nine directors. Reports from the various committees within the association also will be included.

Art Group Plans Spring Luncheon

The Orinda Country Club, spring flowers and children's art will provide the setting for the annual luncheon of the Orinda Art Center on April 6.

Preceding the luncheon, sponsors, board members and their guests will assemble in the lounge to hear Dr. Gordon Woods give an illustrated lecture on art. His topic will be "Modern Painting — Search for Meanings."

Dr. Woods is director of the San Francisco School of Fine Arts and has achieved national recognition as a working sculptor, critic, and teacher. He has been the recipient of many awards for his work in sculpture. Two outstanding sculpture commissions were given him for the fountain of the International Business Machine Building in San Jose and the fountain done for the Masson Champagne plant in Los Gatos.

Dr. Woods came to San Francisco in 1949 to instruct at the Towne School for Boys. In 1951 he became head of the art department at Lick-Wylmerding school. He was formerly president of Artist's Equity and now holds the position of director of the San Francisco Art Association.

This April luncheon celebrates an active year for the Orinda Art Center which sponsors and assists the children's art classes at Glorietta School. They are also sponsors for the Children's Dance Cooperative.

Mrs. Boyd Eubank is general chairman for the event. Assisting her are Mrs. Julian Unruh and Mrs. Spencer Archer, supervising the exhibit of children's art. Mrs. Frank Brown is program chairman and Mrs. Phillip Champion will have charge of seating and reservations. Assisting as hostesses are Mesdames Ralph Hickox, Fred Cook and Helen Jones.

4-H Volunteers Are Recognized

Last week, national 4-H Club week, the University of California Agricultural Extension Service saluted local 4-H Club leaders. There are 197 adult volunteer leaders in Contra Costa County and 1000 club members.

Recognized in Orinda were Mesdames W. R. Baker, Channing Kilburn and Eldon Parsons. Adult leaders devote time to helping 4-H-ers in projects and recreation.

They also attend organizational and training meetings in an effort to keep the club program uniform throughout the county and state.

Students to Work In Careers Study

Selection of students to participate in CEC, the Career Exploration Course, will be determined by the selections committee from the applications received at Miramonte High School. Deadline for application forms to be returned was today.

Many career experiences have been requested by the applicants for this course which is being offered by the Acalanes High School district as part of the summer school program. CEC is designed to provide Miramonte students the opportunity to explore any career field through actual work experience while still attending high school.

STUDENTS WHO participated last summer in this program were enthusiastic about the experience which they received. Five of them continued, after the completion of the required five week session, and worked in the job on a volunteer basis for the rest of the summer.

Eight students received compensation for further work in the same jobs which they had explored as part of the program in work education, which was directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Chilton. All of the employers who had provided the excellent job experiences requested that they participate again this year. The parents of the students were interviewed at the conclusion of the program and were found to be "very pleased" with the benefits received by their students.

THE COURSE will be limited to 50 students, who will be selected from those applying. The job of choosing the successful applicants will be handled by a selections committee composed of Mrs. Garniss Curtis, psychometrist from the University of California; Mrs. Elizabeth Chilton, coordinator of the program; Lloyd Hunt, head counselor at Miramonte; and Robert Callan, Miramonte dean of boys.

The job experiences will be provided by the Citizens' Advisory Committee. Prominent leaders in the community who are working on this committee are James Campbell, Clarence Dunn, Ken White, Roscoe Hughes, Dr. Paul Slattery and Miles Sutliffe.

Library Holding New Story Hour Series

The Story Book Hour is holding a new series for children on Friday mornings at 9:30 at the Orinda Library. They will will continue until April 29.

Mrs. William Howe, who has a delightful way with children and many charming tales to tell, is the narrator.

Paint Sprayer Covers Area With Dispatch

R. V. Sellers of 106 Hardy Circle, Pleasant Hill, sold his paint sprayer, with motor, compressor and accessories, with a single Sun want ad.

His ads appeared in the Sun Shopping News, the 40,000 circulation, free publication, and also automatically in all four of the Sun regular subscription papers.

They are the Walnut Creek Sun, Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun and Pleasant Hill Sun.

P. J. Getz of 2072 Hermine Avenue, Walnut Creek, sold his power-driven cement mixer, and W. P. Harwood of 867 Acalanes Road, Lafayette, sold his western saddle quickly.

The list of "success stories" from Sun want ads runs into the hundreds each week.

Why don't you let The Sun solve your problem? A 14-word want ad, which gets the "5-in-1" treatment, costs only $1.60.

Call YE 4-5000, AT 4-4444 or CL 4-4343.

Happy Exhaustion for Cast After Rehearsals, Parties

By JULE' NOLLER

Three parties, six weeks of rehearsals, a dance and two performances of "Annie Get Your Gun" left the cast of the senior play in a state of happy exhaustion this week.

After last Friday's performance, they attended a dance for all Miramonte students at St. Stephan's Church until 12. On the stag line were Mason Fries, Butch McMacken and Dave Dail.

Two cast parties were held after the final performance on Saturday night. The first one lasted until 1 at Sue Tharp's. Her house was alive with activity all night with a group singing in the kitchen to the accompaniment of Jeff Neighbor's guitar, a few in the living room listening to Bruce Bromley's tape recording of Saturday night's performance, some dancing to records, and others eating in the kitchen.

Linda "Dolly Tate" Williams and Kurt "Charlie Davenport" Lundblad, who fought constantly during the play, made up at the party and are now great friends. Some of the other cast members who celebrated were Squire "Pawnee Bill" Fridell and Sue Henry, Skip "Foster Wilson" Nelson and Vicki McCosker and Richard Harrington and Susan Rice.

At 1 Sue's party ended, and the live-wire still rarin' to go continued their party at Jim Boyd's until 3 a.m.

Still not tired, the energetic cast staged a swimming party at Sylvia Silva's house in the rain on Sunday. Unaffected by the weather, Gary Black, Sue Tharp, Sylvia Howes, Jeff Neighbor and Joan Robinson braved the waters of the Silva's pool.

Besides the senior play, many skiing performances were made by Miramonte enthusiasts last weekend. Enid Hennessy and Bob Merriam, Jerilynn Ganiats and Dennis McKann ad Lonnie Anderson and Mike Calhoun spent the weeked with Mr. and Mrs. Merriam at Squaw Valley.

Suzie Lahti, Jack Ogden, Bonnie Boyd and Carl Ogden skied at Sugar Bowl last Saturday. The day, being Carl's birthday, proved quite eventful. Before they finished their first run, Suzie was carried off the hill in a ski patrol toboggan, and Bonnie stood watching her ski sail off down Mt. Lincoln out of control. Though Suzie went home painfully on crutches, the patriotic group didnt fail to make it to Miramonte in time to catch the final performance of the senior play—ski clothes and all!!

Norita Jones, a Miramonte senior, was chosen to play her violin with 67 other Northern California musicians in the Seventh Annual Junior Bach Festival to be held in Berkeley during April 24 to May 1. She was chosen by her outstanding performance in various auditions that she participated in.

The MIRADOR, Miramonte's newspaper, was sold by the journalism staff on Tuesday this week. Its readers were surprised to find Frank Feldman and Butch Guarneri hailed as March's "Couple of the Month." These two seniors were said to have gotten together after they both suffered from a sad romance and decided to give up girls (for a moment. Frank and Butch are two of the more necessary members of the MIRADOR staff. Besides being sports editor and and business manager respectively, they make basketball courts out of scotch tape rolls and piles of scratch paper and shuffle board games with chalk, rulers and scotch tape rolls.

Club Requests Highway Marker for Plaza Plaque

By CONNIE PIKE

Did you know that Lafayette is the oldest community in Contra Costa County? In following a course to determine the oldest member of the Lafayette Women's Club, Mrs. Vincent Lombardo, historian of the group, found historical points of interest deemed worthy of recognition by the California State Historical Society.

Officials of the club have forwarded a petition to the State society requesting this recognition. The first item pointed out in the petition is the antique millstone with a brass plaque which stands in the Lafayette plaza.

Placed there by the Lafayette Lions Club and the Contra Costa Historical Society, it denotes the community as the oldest in the county. The petition requests highway markers to be placed on the freeway, opposite the plaza, to focus interest on it.

IT WAS ALSO learned that the Lafayette area was purchased by Elam Brown in the fall of 1847 from Wiliam L. Leidsdorff, and homes were erected in February of 1848.

Benjamin Shreve, a school teacher who arrived in 1852, opened the first general store — the Pioneer. He also established the first school, and applied for and received the first government permit in the county to operate a U.S. Post Office. He named the village LaFayette in honor of the French general and U.S. patriot.

His body lies in an unmarked grave in the old Lafayette cemetery. The Lafayette Women's Club hopes to begin a campaign to obtain a marker for the grave, and will ask the aid of other civic groups.

No reply to the request, dated March 8, has yet been received, but endorsements of the action have come from the Lafayette Lions Club and the Mt. Diablo District of Federated Women's Clubs. The district has 29 individual clubs, and is active in conservation and historical projects.

Hyacinths to Feed Thy Soul

"If of thy mortal goods thou are bereft
And from thy slender store two loaves alone to thee are left,
Sell one, and with the dole
Buy hyacinths to feed thy soul."
(Attributed to the Persian)

IN THE SPRING, when we nose our way to the Nursery, it's as if we were being steered there by the soul. Thus it reminds us of the above Persian poem.

MARCH behaving like July, completely mesmerized us all last week, this week too, w/its wonderful warmth, its balmy air, its gorgeous sky.

SO THERE we were at the Moraga Valley Nursery, both on Saturday & Sunday, each time w/the usual seed packets in our hot little hands, mentally planning the old-fashioned flower garden that w/seeds & seedlings we toil in the soil for every year.

IT DOESN'T matter that the birds beat us ot the youngest plants & the gophers & rabbits get the later blooms. It's just the motion that matters. Getting next to the good earth.

BROWSING THE begonias & azaleas at Moraga Nursery, we saw Jack Block picking out juniper tams . . . He was just returning from a Burton PTA fashion show where he did duties as Commentator, this formerly SF/Man of the Year who is a bright eyed SF Breakfast Club Speaker . . .

Sniffing the herbs & picking out a small chive plant, we watched the Ernest Polls choose some annual plantings for their Camino Sobrante garden.

OVER the primroses, we chatted briefly w/Martha Atkins who had her children along. We learned that the showy flowers in Phair's Gift Shop window planter are Fairy Primroses that should be planted in the Fall for long winter bloom. Too late now. We made a mental note to remember NEXT year!

A handful of children followed Ardyce Handlery around as she picked out some perennials . . . & Gene & Joan Garbarino mit moppets were busy loading down their station wagon full of garden goodies & gadgets . . . Mrs. Boulware buying roses.

WE TIPTOED through the tulips . . . Gordon Woods, a perennial haunter of the Nursery, making his purchases . . . Landscape man Bob Babcock stopping for charcoal for his barbecue . . . The Fageols, Hickoxes, Kirklands & Frank Kennys more of those feeding their souls as well as their gardens.

Blame It on Spring!

AROUND TOWN . . . Tennis pro Jack Mann cool & courtbound in white tennis shorts . . . Dr. Jim Eldred reaching home w/an armful of tennis rackets, an armful of kids. . . . The special treat of seeing the daffodil-covered slopes afront the Lindsey Spights on Camino Pablo . . . A little MG on Acacia Dr. still wearing its plastic raincoat.

Perpetual Motion: Two red-headed tots (boys naturally) sitting in the front seat of a black sportscar afront LUCKY'S at the Crossing & having the time of their lives. Had both windowshield wipers going, the directional lights on & offing, ditto the headlights & passers-by PRAYING that their Father had the key. What a picture for a Post cover!

SHADES OF RUDOLPH FRIML: The Red Mill, formerly El Nido, will open officially on Friday eve., April 8 w/a benefit bash sponsored by Orinda Branch of Children's Hospital, accdg. to Marge Higgins who will chairman the party. Jay Bedsworth, genial host, is refurbishing the restaurant & making up the new Menu!

THE WORLD OF ART . . . Besides the oils she has on display in Orinda Drug Store, Jo Mirov is having a one-picture show at the Orinda Store. The painting "Scene near Canyon" is located just inside the door & if you're looking for a local view to hang, this one's for sale! The young Orinda matron has been studying w/Peter Blos & Georgia Fay Cassidy for the past 3 yrs.

Orinda artist Betty Rodgers & Mosaicist Mary Bishop go into the Art Gallery biz in May. Their shop, to be called "Collector's Art" at Park Way & Grand Ave., in Oakland, will feature paintings & artworks by established top calibre artists.

THE ORINDA Library is featuring an exhibit of abstract oils by Gloria Brown, Orinda Art Center member, whose pictures include two works from her show last month at the Lucien Labaudt Gallery where she sold several paintings. One of her works was selected for hanging in the handsome offices of the new SF Crown Zellerbach Buildg.

Orinda Advertising firm of Cappel, Pera & Reid have signed Jim (Mr. Magoo) Backus for a series of those zany radio spots for a couple of clients.

THAT'S CHARLIE, My Boy, says Emmarie Reid, as she reads the airlane map next to Charlie when they fly hither, thither in their new company Cessna. Emmarie, gay & gabby redhead writing lady, has given up her red locks of late for something in the silver-green dept., & it wasn't JUST for St. Patrick's Day!

KEY to the new 33-room Ellen K. Raskob bldg. at College of the Holy Names in Oakland was presented to college officials in Sat. ceremonies by Robert P. Raskob of Orinda. He is the nephew of Ellen K. Raskob in whose name was established the Raskob Foundation for Catholic Activities.

OH, THE THINGS you hear in the background while talking on the phone—like mother to a moppet—"Jason Dear, please don't drink the donkey's water" . . . & when the lady who left us holding the phone w/"Hold on a minute, will you? My little boy is oiling the piano keys!"

Kitty & Kaboodle . . .

WEEKEND COMMUTER is John Gillivan of Camino Sobrante who is now w/the J. W. Robinson Co., in L. A. Top man in his field of Fine Furniture (Breuner's, Sloane's), the recent job change to the Southland means that we will lose the whole Gilligan clan (Kitty & Kaboodle?) when they make their move to a new menage at summer's start. Our friend Kitty, wonderful mother of six, is to be admired . . . For each child she has faithfully kept a record of school pictures, report cards, snapshots, etc. . . . (Now WHERE did we put that suit-box full that we've been wanting to get at for YEARS!)

TODAY at the Orinda Library, Gretchen Howe resumes her Story Hour for the Lilliputs. The time, 9:30 a.m. so if you missed it w/your young ones, try to take them wkly. Same place, same time to this successful venture sponsored by Friends of the Orinda Library. (Library now opens at 10 a.m. daily.)

ORINDA ART CENTER'S annual Luncheon & Children's Exhibit is set for April 6 at 10:30 at Orinda Country Club. . . Preluncheon speaker is Mr. Gurdon Woods. Tkts. at $3.00 are available from Mrs. William Leftwich, CL. 4-3388, Mrs. R. C. Seidel, CL. 4-2449 & Mrs. William Traverso, CL. 4-2393.

The gorgeous weather last wknd. was certainly conducive to the Big Clean-Up of our town & the scouts are to be commended for their help in making the litter disappear . . . Some of the things uncovered in the Village were an old muffler, an old car motor, a bicycle wheel & a dozen assorted clogs & Keds & of course, as happens every year, one boy found himself a crumpled dollar bill.

ONE of the papers picked up during the LitterBug Clean Up was a child's poster saying "Don't throw papers around!"

FOR MY GUM WRAPPERS, the best looking litter anyplace is located in the exhibit case in Orinda Library this week. Most artfully assembled litter ever seen . . . but unfortunately, it doesn't look that way when it's not under glass.

The Dorr residence on Oakwood Rd. was sold last week . . . A smaller sale was the bee-oo-tiful Italian bird cage at Phair's bought by a Berkeley woman ($275.) But no bird for this florentine cage—she'll fill it w/flowers!

PANDORA'S BOX is open & look who's flown the coop—Mary Anne & John Gilchrest, (she's a Pandora member) jetted to the Islands today for a 10-day stay . . . Virginia & Al McCann are basking & baiting the Big Ones at La Paz & still another Pandora member Ruth Barchfield & her husband John are celebrating their 25th wedding annvy. w/a European holiday. Aboard the Queen Mary right now, they'll toast their Silver One at MAXIM'S in Paris.

CHAIRMANING the Santa Maria Women's Club annual Luncheon to be held in 20 different homes on April 27 is Stella Boyle . . . Tkts. at $2.50 are available from Pat Loughman, CL. 4-3187. You can have your cake & cards too, this being for Bridge, if you choose!

MEMBERS OF the Miramonte Wheel Club, sponsored by the Orinda Rotary Club, stained the planter boxes in the Crossroads and Village areas during a two-hour period last weekend. The painting was performed as part of the Clean Up Orinda month-long drive, which concludes this week. —Sun photo by Elwood Hansen.

Neighbors Protest Rest Home Appeal Filed

Irate neighborhood residents in the vicinity of Pleasant Hill Elementary School on Oak Park Boulevard have filed an appeal with the Contra Costa County Planning Commission, vigorously protesting the granting of a land use permit to William and Charlotte Edmeade who hope to establish a rest home in the area.

The $25 bonded appeal read in part: "Granting of the permit would adversely affect the character and atmosphere of this long established taxpayer's community by virtue of the intrusion of a wholly commercial enterprise.

"This creates understandable apprehension that the possibility of further similar encroachment in a strictly single family residential neighborhood exists. Restrictions would be placed upon the normal habits and routine of the children attending the nearby Pleasant Hill Elementary School."

THE APPEAL was signed by Mrs. Roland Risch, who further stated that the rest home could more properly be located in an area zoned for multiple family residences.

Mrs. James W. Ramos of 2029 Oak Park Boulevard, representing the 58 signed petitioners and more than 100 additional objecting neighbors, stated that residents were irked with the handling of the entire affair.

She said that an obscure land use permit notification was placed on a telephone pole behind a hedge. It was belatedly noticed by residents who immediately rallied with only four hours to go before hearing.

Because of the residents' protests, according to Mrs. Ramos, the original hearing and decision of the planning commission was delayed until the commission could examine site and report findings.

REPRESENTATIVES of the commission made a field trip to the site, and recommended that the land use permit be granted. Customarily those who have spoken in opposition before the planning commission are notified when the next public hearing will be held.

Mrs. Ramos and Mrs. William Masters of 2032 Oak Park Boulevard state that no such notification was received by any who spoke in opposition.

They further allege that after finding out quite by accident that the planning commission recommended approval on March 18 and the decision was open to appeal within ten days, that county officials gave no such notice.

NOTICE to those in opposition is customary with the planning commission. However, Mrs. Ramos stated that on inquiry to the commission, it was admitted by a female employee that a "slip-up" had occurred and the notices had not been sent.

Representatives of the neighborhood involved stated that aside from their personal objections to the rest home, the entire project was alien to the area. Among the reasons given were noise from the adjacent school, lack of sidewalks and additional pedestrian and vehicular traffic on a street already over burdened with same.

Robert Farris Is Cadet Officer

Robert G. Farris of Orinda has been named a Cadet First Lieutenant in the Reserve Officers Training Course Battalion at the University of California, Davis.

He has been assigned to the position of platoon leader, 3rd Platoon, Company C.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Farris of 31 Broadview Terrace, Farris is a senior majoring in dairy industry in the College of Agriculture at Davis.

Local Teacher To Help State Guide Chemistry

Mario Martin Menesini, counselor and science teacher at Las Lomas High School, has been named by Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg and University of California staff to a committee for a chemical educations materials study.

Purpose is the improvement of the California high school chemistry curriculum.

Menesini will be one of the writers of experimental and textual materials from which will develop a hypothetical chemistry couse suitable to the needs of all the students of chemistry in this present scientific age.

Menesini was chosen by a steerthe nation's leading educators and ing committee, including some of scientists, of which Seaborg, U.S. chancellor, is chairman.

The first pilot meeting will be held at the Harvey Mudd College in Claremont this weekend.

Three Scouts Elected to Camp Society

Three boys of Scout Troop No. 250 sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, were elected to the Order of the Arrow.

Boys winning the award, given by election are Greg Hennefer, Mike Stevenson and Brent Coffin. The Order of the Arrow is a national honorary camping society within the Boy Scouts of America and signifies the best campers and leaders of the troop.

The second in a series of preconditioning hikes was taken by the troop in anticipation of the 50 mile Sierra hike next summer.

Tenderfoot scouts, Herb Macey, Gerald DeQuattro, Michael Erickson, Ray Chandler, Tim Mance, Dennis Allred, Gordon Gray, Douglas Waldrep, Charles Kaspar, Michael Weable, David Hennefe and Howard Shea were welcomed by Dr. Bert Weable, Scoutmaster at a recent Court of Honor and candlelight investiture.

Principal Has Article Published

A desire to share his experiences in working with and observing mentally retarded children have resulted in the publication of an article by Robert D. Lovejoy.

This is the first published article by Lovejoy, who is principal of Strandwood elementary school. Mr. Lovejoy's article appears in the April issue of "The Instructor," an elementary teachers' magazine.

THE SECTION headed, "The Principals' Forum" includes his article, "The severely retarded in the elementary school."

Mr. Lovejoy's firsthand experience came from working with and observing Mrs. Russell Wallin who teaches severly retarded and retarded children at the Strandwood School.

He stated he was not planning any further articles at the moment.

Nursery School Group Will Meet

Orinda Nursery School Association will be held on Thursday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church at 8 p.m.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Hermine Van Gelder, will speak on children's books current and classic. Mrs. Van Gelder has been a librarian and an instructor in children's literature and storytelling at San Francisco State College. She has also done storytelling on radio and television.

Mrs. Charles Blue is hostess for the evening and she will be assisted by the Mesdames Stephen Stewart, Pierce Hussey, Harvey Parry, Mark Kermit, R. A. Sodestrom and Richard Chappelle.

Refreshments will be served preceding the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

All members are urged to attend.

New Solution to Flood Job Forming

County officials think they may have a solution to the knotty problem where East Bay Municipal Utility District aqueduct lines will hold up the cutting of a new route in the Walnut Creek main channel, thereby delaying the $642,000 interim flood project.

The solution will be presented toda at 3:30 p.m. in San Francisco to state division of highways officials.

Carl Rich, County Flood Control and Water Conservation District engineer, said the new plans call for improving the stretch from Arnold Industrial Highway south, as if the state division of highways were able to proceed normally with rerouting a portion of the channel just north of Monument Boulevard and east of Contra Costa Highway.

THE STATE job is a separate but integral portion of the entire project, but EBMUD's reluctance to move some underground aqueduct lines appeared to make this portion impossible to complete before the end of the year.

Scout Exposition Will Be Big Affair Tomorrow

Tomorrow's the big day to see the Scouting Exposition at Miramonte and Las Lomas High Schools in the Meridian District of the Mt. Diablo Council, and to watch Cubs, Scouts and Explorers doing what they do at their weekly meetings, their week-end hikes and longer excursions.

A look at some of the assigned themes will show the wide variety of interests and activities. Here we see Cub Scout homemade games; next door an old time showboat. Here's a den doing copper enameling, and another has built a "seashore shanty."

STILL OTHERS have let their imaginations loose on aviation and space themes; and here's one which has displayed uniforms looking back 50 years.

Some shows will have talent of other kinds, or special features in the program too. For instance, Sea Scouts and the Order of the Arrow will present a special demonstration.

Or you may see Explorers presenting such activities as square dancing. with their girl friends. There may be tumbling, musical numbers, or Cub Scout Pinewood Derbies.

Merit badges demonstrated display an equally wide range of subjects. To see booths on soil conservation, home repairs, hiking, cycling, safety, geology, personal fitness, and electricity—to mention only a few.

HERE WILL be other specialties with Exploring, like firefighting, marksmanship, socials, light-weight packing, and landship drill.

Kids under 14 are free if accompanied by their parents. The hours are from 2:30 to 8:30, and every boy in pack, troop, or explorer unit will have a chance to appear with his own outfit sometime during the show. Each den or patrol will appear on the program.

IF THIS man is a subscriber to The Sun, he is eligible for a $10 cash reward as The Sun's Lucky Commuter. He need not fret if he isn't a subscriber, because he then is eligible for $5 in cash and a year's subscription to The Sun. —Sun photo by Dave Ogden.

Acalanes Trustees Meet With Foreign Students

Four foreign exchange students currently attending Acalanes district high schools discussed their experiences in education in this country with Acalanes district trustees this week.

All of the students stated they were generally impressed with the quality of local secondary education, particularly the individual help afforded students by counseling and guidance programs in Acalanes district high schools.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS stated they preferred the American system of concentrating on fewer subjects and meeting in each class for a set time each day. Practice in the schools which they attend at home is generally to take up to as many as 12 subjects with classes held on an irregular pattern during the school week. The foreign students thought the American system allowed stronger focus on primary study areas.

Visiting students from abroad also stated they found th extracurricular program in American high schools an "advantageous" learning and experience opportunity not afforded in their own school systems.

All of the foreign students preferred the concept of universal opportunity for higher education, based on interest and ability, provided in American schools as opposed to selected and often restricted opportunity for advanced education in schools abroad.

FOREIGN STUDENTS were also "impressed" with the citizenship training program in American secondary schools — both in academic courses and student government activities. None of the countries represented by the foreign student contingent offers academic or activity programs geared specifically to citizenship responsibility.

Visiting students, however, noted that there were more foreign language subjects offered in schools in their home countries.

Two Week Delay On Sheriff Fees Report Granted

A report on sheriff fees will be reviewed by the board of supervisors on April 5.

County Administrator Joseph P. McBrien obtained the two week delay on Tuesday stating he needed the additional time to complete the survey as some marshals had balked at reporting mileage costs.

McBrien assured the board the two week delay would still allow the supervisors time to act prior to the June primary election. The report will include mileage and civil fees retained by Sheriff Walter Young and fees and mileage for marshals and constables.

ACTION prior to the election is of importance as some constables will be running for election this year. McBrien stated that in his opinion the fee system is antiquated and should be eliminated.

The major problem, he said, is selecting a proper time to end the system. Arrangements for a change, he continued, would take into account equity as well as the elimination of an outmoded system. He explained the sheriff and his opponents ran on the assumption fees and mileage were available.

Fluoridation Is Democrats' Topic

"Fluoridating Our Water Supply" will be the topic of a speech, Monday at 8 p.m., during a Danville Democrats meeting in Green Valley School.

Speaker will be announced.

Instructor Wins $10

The Sun renewed a long friendship this week when R. A. Stirton, 3611 Powell Drive, Lafayette, was identified as the Sun Lucky Commuter of last week.

Stirton, a paleontology instructor at the University of California, has been a resident of Lafayette for 23 years and is a long-time subscriber of The Sun. As a result, he received a $10 check as his Lucky Commuter reward.

Each week, The Sun publishes a photograph of some central county resident on his way to or from work via bus, auto or foot.

If the commuter is a subscriber of The Sun, he receives $10; if not, he receives $5 in cash and a year's subscription to The Sun (Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Lafayette or Orinda Sun), worth $3.75.

Identification of the Lucky Commuter may be made at either of The Sun's offices, 1001 Orchard Road, Lafayette, or 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Free Throw Ends Cagers' Program

The Walnut Creek Park and Recreation Department basketball program for fourth and fifth grade boys from the Walnut Creek Schools ended with a free throw contest.

The winners were as follows:

Fourth grade: first, David Bell from Buena Vista; second, John Strobe from Buena Vista; third, Mickey Smith from Buena Vista.

Fifth grade: first, Dan Flynn from Walnut Heights; second, Mark Speetzer from Murwood; third, Tommy Bennett from Parkmead.

This coordination and muscle building activity, which helps the boys develop good form for future hoop champions, was held at Del Valle High Gym Saturday mornings during the season.

Bypass Point of Danger Brings Stern Warnings

There is often a fly in the ointment, and the Walnut Creek Bypass is not excepted.

Drivers have been enjoying for more than a week the supersmooth, speedy magic carpet which greets them as they approach the interchange, and those leaving or headed for Lafayette and Pleasant Hill have no problems.

But drivers headed for Danville —beware!

YOU MAY run into the back of a car trying to pull out from a stop sign just south of Crest Avenue.

There have been at least two accidents, not serious, where the freeway going south merges with a "new" Main Street, which serves Castle Hill Road, Sunny Court and Brentwood Court.

And only strenuous efforts by the Walnut Creek Police Department, alerted almost as soon as the bypass opened, has averted a serious accident.

Officers have been posted at the stop sign just south of Castle Hill Road every day.

EUGENE Daggert, State Division of Highways office engineer for the project said, "We can avert a tragic accident if we can persuade drivers on the old South Main Street, downtown, to stay on the "on-ramp" when they reach the South Main undercrossing interchange.

He continued, "The trouble is that they don't obey the sign directing them to continue turning right onto the on-ramp, and they end up on the new road, which merges at a stop sign, farther south, with the main freeway.

"Drivers at the stop sign can't accelerate fast enough for the freeway traffic, or by stopping, other cars behind them don't stop in time.

"IF THEY will stay on the on-ramp, there will be fewer cars at the stop sign, and less danger when the commuter cars come whizzing down the south leg," Daggert said.

The problem will be eliminated when the double ribbon highway is continued south, through Alamo, Danville and eventually, to Highway 50.

But this may be years in the future.

Meanwhile, police officers are handing written instructions and warning to motorists at the stop sign, attempting to discourage use of the "new" Main Street, just east of the freeway, as much as possible.

It is hoped that this program will lower the accident potential until some other solution is found.

In the Classroom . . .

Del Rey Science Project Helps to Tell 'What am I?'

The six classes of Del Rey School involved in the University of California Elementary School science project have just begun their study of the third unit in the series. This unit combines physiology and biochemistry to fashion a mirror of knowledge and questions concerning "What Am I?"

Introduction to the unit was made by comparing various class members with pictures of themselves at a younger age. Discussion brought the conclusion that, while individual characteristics may or may not have changed, the one common and greatest change was growth. This led to the study, now in process, of bones and the skeleton system.

If you've been puzzled by the children's talk of cow shanks and chicken wings in the classroom, be assured they are not engaging in a group soup-making spree but have been noting the calcification and the epiphysal closure.

CLASSES PARTICIPATING are Mrs. McCormack's first grade, Mrs. Cantry's second grade, Mrs. Cunningham's third grade, Miss Dewar's fourth grade, Mr. Robertson's fifth grade and Mrs. O'Dea's sixth grade.

Another budding young Orinda artist gained recognition when the San Francisco Chronicle printed 6-year-old Holly Huston's drawing, captioned "How Suzy will look when she has her kittens." Holly is a member of Mrs. Ruth Sawyer's kindergarten class.

Sally Fuller, one of Mrs. Cunningham's third graders, has won three first prizes and numerous honorable mentions for her efforts in the past. Susan Gonot, from the same class, has had several honorable mentions. Sister Karen Gonot, from Mrs. McCormack's first grade class has won two awards besides several honorable mentions. Perhaps San Francisco is only a suburb of Orinda.

Glorietta: Community

MRS. GEER'S SECOND grade class at Glorietta is studying about their homes. They have a map of their community and have brought pictures of their homes. They use yarn to indicate where their houses are on the map.

They also have a toy store with real toys. They are learning how to add up prices and how to make correct change.

John Jacob, Bob Ashworth and Tony Richarz of Miss Stadt's fifth grade will be feeding drugs to their rats at school. The two drugs are called stilbesterol and tetracycline. These drugs are used to make livestock fatter. There will be three rats in this experiment. One will be fed regular rat food. They will use this rat to compare the size and weight of the other rats which will be fed the drugs. They will be weighed and measured every week for six weeks. All of the rats are baby females.

The only difficulty they have had so far was when one rat crawled through a hole in a record player and would not come out. They took the bottom of the record player off and got the rat out.

Orinda: Africa

Mrs. Dochterman's and Mrs. Schreiber's third grades have learned many interesting facts about Africa, the third grade social

Some things they have learned are: Native Africans will not kill a snake as they believe an evil spirit will do harm to them; the South African Zulu natives trade cows for wives; Zulu mothers fill their mouths with water, then squirt it over their babies to bathe them.

Also, the girls endeavor to make themselves beautiful by covering their bodies with grease or butter.

OUR PEOPLE WHO have gone to Africa are trying to change the natives' way of life. The students have learned that the Belgian Congo, Nigeria, Ghana and Mali are expecting to gain their freedom soon and have a government of their own, the same as several other African countries.

The countries of Africa which are free have a government almost identical to ours. The capital of Liberia, Monrovia, was named after one of our former presidents, James Monroe.

Africa is the second largest continent in the world and was once called the "Dark Continent" because so little was known about it. They also have learned that most of our gold and diamonds come from Africa. The people range from 3 feet to 7 feet tall, and have many different languages.

The Contractor shall perform with his own organization and workmen under his immediate superintendence, work of a value of not less than fifty percent (50%) of the value of all work embraced in the contract as required by the Specification for this project.

The Contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the County (at no expense to the County) executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the County in the prescribed form.

(a) Faithful Performance Bond

(b) Labor and Materials Bond

Each of the above bonds shall be in an amount equal to one-half (50%) of the total amount bid by the Contractor in his Proposal.

All bids must be submitted on a Proposal form, obtainable from the County Public Works Department, and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty in the amount of Six Hundred and 00/000 ($600.00). Guaranties shall be in the form of certified check, cashier's check or bidder's bond, as provided in the section of the Specification referring to Proposal Requirements. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the Contract.

The Contractor shall commence work within fifteen (15) days after approval of the contract by the County.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Request for forms, or information shall be addressed to the Office of the Public Works Department, Post Office Box 509, Martinez, California.

Proposals shall be filed with Walter T. Paasch, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Hall of Records, Martinez, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 11:00 a.m. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total, unless written request for the reading of such subtotals and individual items of the bid is received at the time of the submission of Proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Public Works Director to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking, after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

By order of the Board dated this 15th day of March, 1960.

"W. T. PAASCH, COUNTY CLERK and ex-officio CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, County of Contra Costa, State of California, By M. A. Smith, Deputy Clerk."

OF PROPERTY DELINQUENT FOR NON-PAYMENT OF IMPROVEMENT BOND No. 29 SERIES 1956-1 ISSUED FOR IMPROVEMENT WORK IN ASSESSMENT DISTRICT 1956-1 OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Default having been made in the payment of the following named coupons, 1/2/59 Pr. $193.33; 1/2/59 Int. $75.40; 7/2/59 Int. $69.60; 1/2/60 Pr. $193.33; 1/2/60 Int. $69.60. and the holder of said bond having demanded in writing that the County Treasurer of the county of Contra Costa, State of California, proceed to advertise and sell the lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond. Now, therefore, I give notice that I will on the 11th day of April, 1960, at the hour of 10 o'clock A.M., of said day, sell at public auction, the lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond, or so much thereof as may be necessary, at my office in the county court house at Martinez, California, unless the amount due on said bond and the accrued interest thereon, together with the cost of publication of this notice, are paid, and that I will so sell the same to the person who will take the least amount of said lot or parcel of land and pay the full amount of unpaid principal and interest on said bond, together with costs of publication. The lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond and to be sold, is more particularly described, to-wit: Lot No. 66, as delineated and so designated upon that certain map entitled, "Contra Costa County Tract 2333, Sheets 1, 2 & 3", filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, on February 9, 1956 in Book 62 of Maps, at pages 32, 33 & 34. The amount due on said bond up to the date of this notice is as follows: Due on the principal thereof $2513.29, Due on account of interest $271.04, Due on account of premium $125.66, Due on account of penalties $54.46; Total amount due on said bond $2964.45;

In order to avoid this sale, payment of the total amount above named will be required, together with the cost of publication made before such payment and the additional interest accruing up to the date of payment. Bond may be reinstated upon payment of amounts due, interest, penalties, and fees, in the manner provided by law.

In the event of sale, such sale will include interest in addition to the above total amount due, accruing up to the date of sale, the cost of publication of notice of sale, and $1.00 for the issuance of certificate of sale. The Orinda Sun is designated as the newspaper in which this notice shall be published.

Dated: March 25, 1960.

R. H. KINNEY,
County Treasurer of the County of Contra Costa, State of California.

Woman Sleeps; Awakes To Flames and Death

Apparently a snapping pine log fire, some clothing piled nearby, a rayon acetate housecoat and its owner's appreciation for late television shows combined to take the life of 27-year-old Mrs. Teddie Hoag of Danville, early Monday morning.

Mrs. Hoag burned to death in the living room of the 443 Alamatos Drive home, while her frantic husband, unable to reach her, managed to hurl their six children out bedroom windows.

Sheriff's Department Sergeant David Gardella said the tragedy apparently occurred while the husband, Charles, and children were sleeping in their bedrooms, and Mrs. Hoag had probably fallen asleep watching television, while a large fire in the fireplace burned merrily nearby.

"IN RECONSTRUCTING what happened, it appears that some clean clothing ready for ironing had been placed on the floor and also on a chair near the fire, and the snapping logs sent sparks out, which ignited the clothing, Gardella said.

The Hoags usually did not put the fire screen in front of the fire until retiring, and it was at the side, this night.

"Mrs. Hoag probably awoke and saw the flames in the living room, and ran to put them out. But her rayon acetate housecoat, which is highly inflammable, caught fire, and she was unable to reach the door and safety, falling behind a couch," Gardella said.

In her rush to escape, she pulled an electric clock from the wall. When she fell, the flames from her housecoat started a second fire which burned a nearby couch. Total damage is $1000 to $2000.

THE HUSBAND, owner with his wife of the Valley Stone Supply Company, awoke to hear her call out, "Chuck," but he was stopped by flames and smoke when he tried to enter the living room.

He got two children from one room, four from another, "poured" them out the window, and jumped himself, suffering cuts and abrasions.

Firemen had to restrain him from circling the house and re-entering, Gardella said.

Several earlier theories, such as the possibility that Mrs. Hoag's coat caught fire as she was throwing a log on the fire have been discounted, Gardella said.

THERE WAS a bottle of cleaning solvent in the hall near the entrance to the living room, but it was not involved in the fire, and did not burn, he added.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hoag were held yesterday at the San Ramon Chapel, Danville.

The surviving children, who are in the care of relatives in Castro Valley and Coalinga, are Charles, Evonne, Wallie, Peggy, Tansen and Trina.

The Danville Fire Department, under Chief Duane Elliott, put out the flames.

Burton PTA Panel Will Feature Three Clergymen

"Should moral and spiritual values be taught in the public schools?" This controversial subject will be discussed at the Burton PTA meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Fairview Auditorium.

Three leading Bay Area clergymen will participate in the panel discussion.

DR. GEORGE HEDLEY, Mills College chaplain and professor since 1940, was born in China where he received part of his education, completing his schooling in England and this country.

In addition to clergyman and professor, Dr. Hedley is also a prominent author. Having served in the Methodist ministry since 1924, Dr. Hedley was recently ordained into the Episcopal Church also.

Rabbi William Stern, senior rabbi at Temple Sinai, Oakland, has served in that capacity for 26 years. His community activities include Community Chest chairman, chairman U.S.O., United Crusade board and speaker, Boy Scout council, Rotary Club board, president Crippled Children's Society, and many others.

FATHER JOHN J. Scanlon has served in San Francisco for 10 years as assistant superintendent of schools in charge of confraternity of Christian doctrine. Born in Kansas City, Missouri, he received his education there until he attended St. Mary's College, Moraga. Father Scanlon currently is moderator of the Catholic College federation and previously served as state chaplain of the Knights of Columbus.

Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn, the incumbent of the Walnut Creek municipal court, will serve as moderator. She is a past president of the Central Contra Costa Bar Association and vice-president of the Federated Bar Association, Oakland chapter. Judge Rahn has always been active in numerous civic organizations.

This meeting is open to the public and any interested person is welcome to attend.

Board Will Discuss New Lighting

First positive step toward the formation of a special lighting district for Lafayette's downtown area will be taken at a special meeting of the board of the directors of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, it was announced yesterday.

Lou Repetto, chamber president, said the meeting will be held at noon Wednesday at Jim's Chuck Wagon.

HE EXPLAINED that the Lafayette Design Project has received the county's plans for the lighting district, and asked the chamber to set up a committee for the establishing of the district's boundaries.

Stanford White, president of the design project, explained this is a function of the chamber because the entire proposed district is within the business area of the community.

Repetto said such a committee will be discussed and appointed Wednesday. Then the proposed boundaries go to the County Boundary Commission for approval, and petitions will be circulated among property owners on Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

PETITIONS containing 10 per cent of the total assessed valuation of the proposed district must then be signed for the district to be formed.

The lighting district is part of the three-way face lifting proposed for Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Other items in the plan are a center planting strip to be installled by the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District and sidewalks, curbs and gutters to be installed by the county under another proposed special assessment district.

At the chamber's general membership meeting on April 20 at the new Red Mill (formerly El Nido Rancho), Repetto said the design project will be asked to outline its overall program for the community.

Pre-Cana Conference Is Sunday at St. Mary's

A Pre-Cana Conference for engaged and newly married couples will be held at St. Mary's College Sunday.

The Conference is one of several to be held simultaneously throughout the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

A unique feature of the St. Mary's conference will be the ceremony of the Solemn Betrothal Rite wherein members of the college student body will santify their promises of engagement.

IN ADDITION to the treatment of spiritual, physical and practical aspects of married life which will characterize all the Pre-Cana Conferences, the session at St. Mary's will include advice to the married college student and the student contemplating marriage while still an undergraduate.

A distinguished panel of advisors, familiar with the problems of the student, will include Dr. Joseph Picchi (for the men), Dr. H. F. Zappas (for the women); Mr. and Mrs. Bart Farrell of the Christian Family Movement; and the Reverend Thomas Burns.

Although the conference is given under the auspices of His Excellency, the Most Reverend John J. Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco, it is being sponsored by the Family Life Commission of the San Francisco Region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

NINE OF THE Bay Area Catholic colleges are members of the region's federation. Cris Castro, St. Mary's College sophomore from San Carlos, is chairman of the commission.

Students interested in joining their confreres on Passion Sunday are invited to attend the Pre-Cana Conference at Saint Mary's. Reservations are not necessary for those coming from outside Contra Costa County; those wishing to make them, however, may call ATlantic 3-8557.

The Conference will begin at 1:30 p.m. and close at 5:30 p.m. with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Registration fee is $2.50 per couple.

Sanitary District Board Will Meet

William Dalton, administrative engineer for the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, says the district has denied allegations of discrimination made by Walnut Creek attorney John Forde in a letter to the district.

The board of directors will discuss further some of the problems inherent in the new sewer use charge at their meeting Thursday: i.e., the decision on charitable organizations.

Dalton said other "fringe" problems will be put over to the meeting on April 21.

The board also expects to take action on ways to complete the outfall sewer line, located between the Arnold Highway and Suisun Bay. Approximately 800 feet of the line remained to be installed when the contract with the M. Miller Company was terminated.

Fluoridation Is Topic of Orinda Public Debate

The Orinda Association will sponsor a debate on the subject of fluoridation of the public water supply at 8 p.m. Monday in the Miramonte High School cafeteria.

The debate will serve as the major portion of the association's annual general membership meeting, and it will include three speakers for fluoridation and three against. Voters in the East Bay Municipal Utility District will ballot June 7 on whether the district's water supply should be fluoridated.

Former Assemblyman Donald Doyle will be the moderator, and District Attorney John Nejedly will discuss the legal aspects of fluoridation. Nejedly's appearance is sponsored by the association.

Speaking for fluoridation will be Dr. Karl H. Koenig, a dentist who resides in Orinda; Dr. Sheldon Margen, an internist and research biochemist; and Paul E. Wyszkowski, who is with the state department of public health in Berkeley.

Anti-fluoridation speakers are scheduled to be Dr. George M. Scioroni, a physician-surgeon and vice-chairman of the Fresno Pure Water League; John Martin Hoffman, an attorney; and Dr. Arthur B. MacWhinnie, a dentist.

New Bank Is Formed Here

The Federal Home Loan Bank has given permission for the opening of a new bank in Lafayette, it was learned this week.

The Lafayette Federal Savings and Loan Association, a mutual group whose deposits will be insured by the federal bank, will be the federal savings and loan association in the central county completely controlled by local people.

Harry Morrison of Walnut Creek is president of the new group, and its directors include Jack Marchant, Sam Bradbard, Lawrence Wallace and Don Doughty, all of Lafayette; and Lloyd King of Walnut Creek.

Morrison said the group will meet in the near future to set up a committee for the location of a bank site and for the selection of a manager.

Congregation Starts Building

Dr. Boyce Van Osdel, minister of the First Baptist Church of Oakland, which is the sponsoring church for the newly organized Moraga Hills Community Baptist Church, spoke to members and friends of the church last Thursday evening.

In anticipation of moving into their new building, now under construction, the church gathered for a chicken dinner and the kick-off for the furniture fund drive.

The chicken was catered by Mrs. Burke, with the rest of the preparations for the dinner being handled by the women's Bible study group under the guidance of Betty Jane Kurtz.

Frank Oddone, local general contractor, has been awarded the contract for the construction of the first unit costing $45,000. The architect for the building is Wayne Osaki, prominent San Francisco church architect.

Wheeled Library Serves Wide Area

Every Saturday is Library Day at the Gregory Gardens Shopping Center, when public library service on wheels is provided from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon from the bookmobile operated in Central Contra Costa County. A mobile branch of the county library system, the bookmobile is stocked with a changing collection of 3000 adult and children's books, drawing upon the county library's total collection of some 290,000 volumes.

On a Tuesday through Saturday schedule, the bookmobile, staffed by librarian Mary Rupp and driver Herbert Birse, makes weekly stops in 19 areas beyond convenient access to community branch and station libraries. Gregory Gardens is one of the busiest stops on the schedule with more than 500 books checked in and out during the 2½ hour stay. Saturday afternoon stops are at Rheem Center, Moraga, and Canyon.

OTHER communities in this area served by the bookmobile include Oak Grove Manor, Rancho San Miguel, Alamo Plaza, Saranap, visited on Tuesdays; and the Co-op on Geary Road on Wednesdays. Sections in the fringe areas of Antioch, Pittsburg, Concord, and Martinez are on the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday schedules.

"A bookmobile is actually an economical and practical means of supplying books and professional library services to people in areas where new branch libraries are needed but where library construction would mean too heavy a local financial burden," says Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian.

"ONE BOOKMOBILE, with a live book collection and the skills of a professionally trained librarian available at every stop, operates in lieu of 20 small part-time station libraries where limited book collections must be kept locked up much of the time."

Contra Costa County library bookmobile service was established in December, 1936. A second mobile unit was added in June, 1958. Based in San Pablo, the other bookmobile serves areas in the western part of the county.

Twenty weekly stops are the maximum number possible for each mobile library to make. The schedule is subject to frequent revision as new communities develop and request this service. The county library staff is supplied with information on new and proposed subdivisions by the county planning office.

CONSIDERATION is given to the many written requests for service from organizations and individuals. Factors taken into account in locating stops include area size, population, position of major freeways, local transportation facilities, school locations, distance from existing libraries and other bookmobile stops. If a stop proves impractical it may be transferred to an area where need for service is greater.

Take The Hunger Out Of Your Diet

Now at last, you don't have to feel hungry while dieting. If your present reducing plan leaves you "half starved" between meals, lacking the vitality you want and need, with feelings of mental and physical exhaustion... there's a new, easy-to-follow, low-calorie diet just for you!

Recommended by leading nutritionists, it ends the unpleasantness so often associated with dieting—and the discouraging tendency to regain lost weight. It even lets you enjoy many of the foods you like best. This new diet features a glass of whole milk at each meal . . . and provides the staying qualities that low-calorie reducing plans of the past have lacked.

The old approach was to lower the fat intake to a minimum and keep the carbohydrate level moderate. The new diet, however, is high in protein, moderate in fat and low in carbohydrates, reflecting latest nutritional thinking.

There is just no need for you to suffer through an unworkable reducing program. If you want to shed unwanted weight in a sensible, pleasant manner, write today for a free menu series that will enable you to lose up to two pounds a week. Just address East Bay Producers' Milk Council, 610 Sixteenth Street, Oakland 12, California.

Now, therefore, I give notice that I will on the 11th day of April, 1960, at the hour of 10 o'clock A.M., of said day, sell at public auction, the lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond, or so much thereof as may be necessary, at my office in the county court house at Martinez, California, unless the amount due on said bond and the accrued interest thereon, together with the cost of publication of this notice, are paid, and that I will so sell he same to the person who will ake the least amount of said lot or parcel of land and pay the full amount of unpaid principal and nterest on said bond, together with costs of publication. The lot or parcel of land mentioned in aid bond and to be sold, is more particularly described, to-wit: Lot No. 80, as delineated and so designated upon that certain map entitled, "Contra Costa County Tract 2333, Sheets 1, 2 & 3", filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, on February 9, 1956 in Book 62 of Maps, at pages 32, 33 & 34. The amount due on said bond up to the date of this notice is as follows: Due on the principal thereof $2513.29, Due on account of interest $271.04, Due on account of premium $125.66, Due on account of penalties $54.46; Total amount due on said bond $2964.45;

In order to avoid this sale, payment of the total amount above named will be required, together with the cost of publication made before such payment and the additional interest accruing up to the date of payment. Bond may be reinstated upon payment of amounts due, interest, penalties, and fees, in the manner provided by law.

In the event of sale, such sale will include interest in addition to the above total amount due, accruing up to the date of sale, the cost of publication of notice of sale, and $1.00 for the issuance of certificate of sale. The Orinda Sun is designated as the newspaper in which this notice shall be published.

Dated: March 25, 1960.

Youths Die In Baffling Auto Crash

Two local youths were killed Sunday when their auto swerved out of control on Marsh Creek Road, six miles west of Byron, and crashed into two trees.

They were Vernon E. Leschinsky, 19, 3531 Hillcrest Drive, and Thomas Scott Robertson, 17, 1042 Thomson Road. Highway patrolmen said they believe Robertson was driving the car.

ACCORDING TO the highway patrol, the two youths were returning from a boating trip to the Leschinsky's private cabin near Stockton when the accident occurred. Vernon's father, Joseph A. Leschinsky, and the youth's brother, Eugene, were following the ill-fated car in another vehicle and did not witness the accident but came upon the wreckage within a few moments.

Officers were not able to determine the cause of the crash, which occurred about a mile west of the Deer Valley Road intersection on Marsh Creek Road. Both youths were thrown from the vehicle after it struck the second tree.

Leschinsky and Robertson were dead on arrival at Antioch Hospital.

THE LESCHINSKY youth, a mechanic, is survived by his father and brother. His mother, the late Rose Leschinsky, died in 1958. He was a graduate of Acalanes High School.

Robertson is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton V. Robertson, and a brother, Milton V., Jr., all of Lafayette; three sisters, Mrs. J. P. Wells of Mountain View, Mrs. Ramona Hinkle of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Diane J. Quitzon of New York; and his grandmother, Mrs. Louis Daum of Oakland.

Robertson, assistant manager of a Concord variety store, was graduated from Acalanes last June.

Bishop O'Dowd Officials Deny Fluoridation Letter

Officials at Oakland's Bishop O'Dowd High School issued emphatic denials this week of the school's complicity in the mailing of anti-fluoridation letters to East Bay newspapers.

The "Letters to the Editor" have been published in at least two East Bay daily newspapers—one in Oakland and one in Berkeley during recent weeks.

FATHER MAHER, principal of Bishop O'Dowd, told The Sun he has written to the Berkeley paper informing them that the school definitely had not authorized any such letter, and indicating that the teacher to whom the letter is attributed has no knowledge of it.

He explained that he knows of no motive for the letter, and added attempts are being made to determine the authorship.

The Sun received the following typewritten, undated letter Saturday:

"IN THE MARCH 18 paper is a list of three names as opposed to fluoridation. (Letter by Dr. and Mrs. G. I. Nevhouse). Please tell them to add one more. We too, (sic) are opposed."

An Unexpected Bill? Look in Your Mailbox

Did it ever occur to you that you might walk out to your mailbox one of these days and find a bill in it that you didn't expect?

Of course, it happens to all of us, but this wouldn't be one of those cases where wife or husband, as the case may be, made a purchase and simply forgot to mention it to the other half.

This would be a recurring monthly bill from the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District for "use" of the sewer system.

You are paying for your sewer service now, through a variety of methods. There is a tax which is incorporated in your annual tax bill, and you paid, when you connected your house to the sewer lines, for construction of the system.

And you are retiring bonds, too.

BUT THE SEWER use tax, or charge, as it has been labeled, is something else again. It is a complicated system, with arguments on both sides, but from the effect it has had on commercial users and those who own or operate multiple dwelling units, the battle has only started.

Recently the sanitary district established the use charge for commercial users and multiple units, stating that this has no application to residential home owners.

This is true, but it is also fairly obvious that the board intends, at some future date, to expand the ordinance to include you.

Therefore, you could wake up one of these mornings to find a bill in the mail from the sanitary district.

THE DISTRICT says that this is a more equitable basis for charging for sewer services, and that your taxes would be cut to compensate for the monthly use charge.

The multiple dwelling and commercial people do not feel this way.

So what can you, as a homeowner and voter, do about it? The directors of the sanitary district are sincere men, and they have been working long hours . . . years in most cases . . . at a relatively thankless task.

But they are your representatives, and it is ultimately your responsibility to see that they formulate policies that you will support and then carry them out.

YOU WILL HAVE a chance to vote for two of these men this year, and you can express your opinion at the polls.

Three of the directors will be running again, if they choose to do so, and the election is not until September which gives you ample time to form a solid opinion.

You can do this "on your own" or through your own local improvement or homeowners association.

But the responsibility is in your hands, and the ultimate result will be up to you.

The Sun will keep you informed, but it cannot act for you.

You will have to arrive at a decision, and then do what you feel is right.

A Drop in the Bucket...

$30,000 . . . is it a lot of money, or just a drop in the bucket?

It is a relative thing, of course. In your bank account, tax free, it is a lot of money.

When compared to the life of a child, it is infinitesimal.

That is the amount that MAY be included in the county budget for partial elimination of hazards to pedestrian school children within the county.

The county spends literally hundreds of thousands of dollars each year on a variety of public works projects. But what could be a more worthy expenditure than one which would help protect the lives of our children . . . yours and mine, as they walk toward school, or to the market?

THE REQUEST for funds came from a student protection committee, composed of representatives from parents groups, the California Highway Patrol, the public works department and the county administrators office.

Contra Costa County is a pretty big place, and it has hundreds of miles of roads.

It also has thousands of children. And as population increases, the dangers to our children increase—both because there are more children and there are more drivers. And most of our residential roads stay just about the way they were when we moved out here some years ago.

Most of us moved to this area because we wanted "country living," not sidewalks and street lights and all the other "urban" improvements.

For the most part, the rural nature of our communities remains, but some urbanization must come, especially where safety is involved.

Particularly the safety of children.

COUNTY BUDGETS are monstrous things, full of complications and ramifications that bewilder even professional administrators. And when tax time comes around, everybody screams that non essential items should be eliminated and economy should prevail. The only argument, then, is what is non-essential?

When the life of a child is involved, there should be no question as to the importance of the issue. If $30,000 included in the budget will save the life of even one youngster, it is certainly worth it.

And compared to many of the expenditures of our county government, $30,000 is a real drop in the bucket.

These are OUR children that are affected by this. We live in the center of the "unincorporated" population of the county. It is our kids who will receive the benefit from this program.

SPEAKING STRICTLY, coldly, of dollars, you have a much greater investment in your child than a mere $30,000. This is cheap insurance.

In fact, it is doubtful that $30,000 even approaches the amount necessary to make most of our roads safe for our children. But at least it's a start.

The committee has done a good job, and the county board of supervisors should respect this request and see that it does not "get lost" in some department when budget time comes around.

Our children are important, and $30,000 is nothing when it comes to making their lives safer.

The Staff Corner

..And the Weeding Is Easy

By CONNIE PIKE

Springtime—and the weeding is easy.

Ever notice the sense of satisfaction it gives you to pull the big ones? Of course, you get a clump of top soil with it, but around our neighborhood it isn't wasted.

Small boys follow you with their wagons and load up on the "ammunition." And it's no surprise at all when they later drop a huge one on your unguarded head.

But we don't say much. It's not like rocks, and the children have to have some fun. I guess.

LITTLE GIRLS are different. They don't throw rocks or weed bombs. They throw jacks — but only when they lose their tempers. Last week life was a simple matter of keeping them supplied with jacks, but this week, suddenly, it's jump ropes we're out of.

It's a time of quiet desperation until you can get to the nearest toy counter. Your extra clothesline disappears — or, if there's no extra, your regular clothesline. It's all the same to the girls.

Jump rope time is one of the few times in little girl lives that three are not a crowd. There's much chatter about "high waters" and "hot peppers" for awhile.

YOUR HUSBAND can be found outside pacing off the lot — again. The daffodils have just about finished blooming, but the camellias are covered with flowers. He figures he'll need just 20 trees to finish the landscaping, and if he starts now, he can get a REAL vegetable garden going this year.

But before he spades up the plot, he polishes the barbecue and lays in a supply of charcoal. He'll seek you out in the kitchen and suggest, "Why don't we barbecue a steak for dinner?"

Now all the children are playing baseball in the street. You might even find the daughter you thought had grown up during the winter has reverted. She turns off the endless rock and roll, gives her jeans an extra hitch and goes out to play with the "little kids."

AND THEN, where you thought you'd put the wool sweaters and skirts, you'll see a pile of last year's play clothes, along with some new bathing suit ads. To your dismay you'll find all the sturdy school shoes on the closet floor, and when you look at the family feet—they're bare.

Along with all these signs, you're likely to hear vague complaints. "Gee, I don't feel so well today. Maybe I'd better not go to school."

Don't be alarmed. It's only the usual fever.

And so you succumb, too. You brush the weed bombs from your hair, take a turn at "Little Spanish Dancer." You help select and plant the last of the bare-root trees, and rake over the garden plot.

You pack away the winter clothes and start looking at travel folders. Where shall we go this year? Honolulu looks lovely. Probably we'll go to Tahoe.

You feel a burst of energy: You clean the carpets, wash windows, wax the floors. You fill the house with spring flowers. You wash and iron cotton dresses and short sleeved shirts; you help select new swim suits and sneakers all around.

You go out and buy a huge steak for the barbecue. And then, when you're all ready, the paper plates waiting on the patio table, the charcoal is nicely burning, do you know what happens?

IT RAINS.

Heavenly Days . . . but April has her ways!

By MARIE MONAHAN

ROLL out the green carpet, Lady April has come.

Robins sing, spiders spin, the little bugs hum . . .

She deftly displays her talents with color, a stroke of her wand & the trees seem much fuller with glossoms & petals like delicate gems.

Then she skirts 'round the sky & works on the hems of the hills, folding them softly together —

IN palate-green hues. Misty fogs, heavy dews distinguish her dawnings. Too exciting to sleep through are April's first yawnings.

SHE gets you up, Rise & Shine, to the garden. Alack! By mid-April month, Oh, your aching back!

She shops for a hat, she gabs with the bluejays.

SHE wishes you Heaven in these Heavenly Days!

She puts a polish on the poison oak . . . a song in the frog tho' it's only a croak.

She dotes on the children & sends you to search for a pretty white dress a young girl wears to church.

APRIL'S the lady with tears in her eyes, with bees in her bonnet, precocious, but wise . . . she, suddenly there, reminds you to buy, three dozen eggs & a goodly supply of baskets & bunnies & Easter egg dye.

She'll scramble the children. She'll hardboil the eggs. She'll have you hopping around on Cottontail legs.

April's expression wears a slight frown. The hammock may be up, but the bank balance is down.

For while she's relaxing you, she's Federal Taxing you, not to mention the census for she's Sam's Emanuensis.

BUT regal & golden she stands on the hill —
Commanding a curtsey from each daffodil.
She wears a crown — a dazzling spring jewel.
SHE is the Queen. I am the Fool.

Letters to The Editor

FLUORIDATION

Dear Editor:

I have just returned from a short trip. Before I left, The Sun had had practically no anti letters on the fluoridation subject but was printing everything, including editorials, on the pro side.

I don't belong to the group who cancels their subscription whenever the paper editorializes in a certain way. It is better to watch and on my arrival home, I saw what purported to be an editorial giving both sides of the question but all the most far-fetched or drastic arguments had been quoted in large type, thus putting them, perhaps, in a humorous light.

Why not use a little common sense. The following things are true whether you vote for or against fluoridation.

1. It is nothing which is absolutely and vitally necessary to the well being of all.
2. It is not necessary to dose all, young and old, to safeguard our childrens' teeth as both tablets and solution may be obtained and added at home.
3. If the "pros" feel that it has been proven without a doubt that ALL children would benefit by having it and that NO children would be harmed by it; on the other hand (and this was told me by a doctor) the medical profession hasn't yet definitely determined whether it will have a harmful effect on the older folks.

I am sure the bottled water companies are awaiting the outcome with bated breath. They will have a lot of customers if the vote is YES.

Letters to The Editor

FLUORIDATION

Dear Editor:

I would like to refute what an individual writer has determined is proof for the success of her anti-fluoridationist attitude.

I would like to inquire into the morality of citing half-truths and misrepresentations in order to deprive the children of the East Bay Municipal District of a safe and proven means of decreasing dental decay by 60 per cent—protection lasting a lifetime!

Let us take a look at the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, Inc., Chicago (1), Ill.

The organization represents a small minority in contrast to the total membership of the American Medical Association and the American Dental Association. Despite the efforts of authorities in the field, the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, Inc., (AAPS) has never revealed the exact number of its total membership.

According to the brochure of the AAPS, the organization was established in 1943. It was organized to "represent physicians in the socio-economic and political aspects of medical practice — the areas where the socializers operate to gain control of physicians and their patients."

Unlike the A.M.A. and the A.D.A., the organization has, admittedly, the most interest directed toward political and socio-economic objectives.

Further reference to the AAPS brochure reveals:

They are against the income tax!

They are against social security!

They are in favor of the right to work law!

They are against federal aid to education!

They are against amending the Immigration and Nationality Act, contrary to Mr. Eisenhower's recent statement!

Dr. Exner of Seattle, and Dr. Knight of Santa Barbara, bitter opponents of fluoridation, are both on its board of directors.

At the last regular session of the State Assembly, before a committee holding a hearing on the bill which made it possible to have an election on fluoridation in the EBMUD area, both Dr. Exner and Dr. Knight testified.

Both were opposed to the bill allowing the people the right to vote on fluoridation in EBMUD. Both supported a bill which would have prohibited fluoridation — the ill - fated "Bradley Bill" which was killed in committee.

On December 21, 1957, after four hours of reference committee hearings and 45 minutes of floor discussion, the House (House of Delegates of the American Medican Association) voted to take a policy stand that "fluoridation of water supplies is a safe and practical method of reducing the incidence of caries during childhood."

Tentative estimates of the cost of fluoridation by the EBMUD reveals a rate of six cents per person per year.

Fluoridation of public water supplies is safe, effective, and economical.

Under The Sun

This Guy Is Nuts! He Wants to Cut the Budget!

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

You might remember that several months ago this writer nearly fainted one morning, after opening his mail, to find a statement by a public official asking that his department's budget be reduced for the following year.

"Oh, ho," I said to Snoopy, our office cat. "This guy hasn't had the word. Perhaps he is ill; perhaps he is slightly nuts. Doesn't he know that no government official ever does this. You never, never ask for less; you always, always ask for 20 per cent more. Let's watch this; this guy is in trouble."

And, by gosh, a political battle is starting to swirl about him. I'm referring to Robert McCarthy, California State Director of Motor vehicles (license fees, driver's license, etc.—with offices all over the state).

This is unfair!

McCarthy's great error was to offer to save $1,922,065 in his current operating expenses and the proposed 1960-'61 budget. This, of course, was sacriligious, unorthodox, unheard of. Look what happened:

Last week the State Senate Finance Committee, on recommendation and motion of Senator Randolph Collier of Yreka, voted to restore to the Department of Motor Vehicles budget for 1960-61 the sum of $1,400,000 of the amount previously cut by Director McCarthy.

Now, I don't know McCarthy. But I certainly admire him. I presume he is Irish and look what his Irish dander produced:

"For years I have held to the old fashioned belief that the one thing citizens of this state want is economy in government. For years one of the biggest complaints I have heard about government is that it spends too much.

Now . . . hear this . . .

"After a very careful study of the services of the Department of Motor Vehicles and the cost at which they were being performed, I came to the conclusion that we could render as good, or even better service, with fewer employes.

"Consequently, I spent many weeks analyzing the budgetary needs of the department for the forthcoming fiscal period. I found that by a simple consolidation of many of the duties of the department's very large staff, and by the elimination of a great bulk of red tape, we could, to the very definite advantage of the taxpayers and without in the least jeopardizing the quality of the service required of us, effect a substantial cut in operating costs.

"For the fiscal year 1959-1960 the Department of Motor Vehicles had an approved budget of $31,408,553.

What! Eliminate jobs . . .

"Close examination revealed that by making certain cutbacks we could save $1,153,622 in this current fiscal year. This I proceeded to do chiefly by eliminating 186 positions for which funds had been budgeted. The elimination of these 186 positions was achieved by a department-wise job freeze and by not filling positions as they became vacant.

"In preparing the department's 1960-61 fiscal year budget, we eliminated an additional 180 positions at a saving of $768,443. Thus the total combined net savings in the current budget and in the proposed 60-61 budget amount to $1,922,065.

"At no time in my considerations, did I propose, or even anticipate, the layoff of a single employe. It was my conviction then, and it still is my conviction, that it would be a sheer waste of the taxpayers' money to keep substantially adding year after year to the department payroll.

"To me this whole budget matter is one of simple economy and simple justice.

Senator Collier goes to work

"Obviously some other people do not hold to the same philosophy. At the March 23 hearing of a Senate Committee considering the Department of Motor Vehicle budget for next year, one senator in particular insisted on restoring the items which I sought to cut out in an effort to save the taxpayers money. Since this senator presumably is representative of the people of his district, and since he is presumed to vote the sentiments of his constituents, it appears that I have been wrong in supposing that the people of California want economy in government.

"If this additional money is eventually appropriated, I will refuse to spend a single penny of it. So long as I am responsible for the running of this department, and unless the legislature assigns additional duties to the department, there will be no increase in spending and personnel here.

"Spending more money than is necessary never makes good sense; in fact it is pure fiscal insanity."

Blow the trumpets . . .

Mr. McCarthy, I know I speak for thousands — no millions of troubled taxpayers in California. We applaud you! We admire you! We respect you! We support you! You are 100 per cent right! We are concerned with governmental spending.

I cannot imagine what Senator Collier has in mind. I am sending this column to our legislators, Senator George Miller Jr. and Assemblyman Jerome Waldie, State Capital Building, Sacramento, California. I want them to tell me what this is all about.

I am also going to ask about the Assembly's action in adding $17 million to the budget proposed by the administration, "largely in pay increases for governmental employees over and beyond a five per cent increase already provided in the budget." The quotes are from a statement by Governor Brown.

George and Jerry, what cooks?

While asking questions, let's throw one at our own supervisors, Mel Nielsen and Tom Coll, and other county officials, as well as officials of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, school districts, fire districts, mosquito district, cemetery district, flood control district, park and recreation district, water district, city governments, etc?

Question?

What are you doing to reduce costs, promote increased efficiency, tighten the budgets?

We'd like to hear from you.

Hummingbirds To Present Easter Tea on Tuesday

There is great activity among the members of the Hummingbird Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center as they swing into preparation for their Easter Tea. The event will be held at St. Paul Episcopal Parish Hall on Tuesday at 1:30 p.m.

The Hummingbird tea will feature a display of Easter table settings and bunny baskets arrangements with an Easter parade of children fashions, announced Mrs. Robert Cook, general chairman of the event.

The competitive displays will be judged at 3 p.m. and first prizes will be awarded the winning groups.

The children's fashions being presented by Shoo Time Shopping of Lafayette, will show what the well dressed youngster will be wearing Easter Sunday.

Assisting Mrs. Cook with the arrangements are Mrs. Robert Simpson tickets, Mrs. Steven Szybalski projects, Mrs. Sly and Mrs. Wayne Barrett arrangements, Mrs. Fred Latham fashion, Mrs. George Conti refreshments, Mrs. Warren Phelps, decorations, and Mrs. William Roberts programs.

Famed Designer To Tell Memoirs at Oriole Event

The elegant setting of a French salon will serve as a backdrop for Altha McManus, Orinda resident, when she helps the Orinda Orioles launch their springtime series, a "Trio of Treats & Teas" for the benefit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

On Thursday, April 7, in the Orinda Community Church Fellowship Hall, Mrs. McManus will tell of her long and fabulous career in the world of high fashion.

For 15 years she was a designer and head draper for San Francisco's society designer, Madame Foley who occupied the Mason and Sutter spot where Nelly Gaffney's establishment stands today.

Included in her modish memoirs of courtouriere experiences in Paris and the Riviera will be her early remembrances working for a Hollywood designer and fitting movie star Norma Shearer for the gown she wore for her marriage to the famed Irving Thalberg.

The benefit will feature a fashion show of timeless originals from the famed fashion houses of such designers as Molly Parnes, Pacquin, Mainbocher and Galanos.

Orinda Orioles members who will model are the Mesdames Cecil Hawkins, Norman Parker, Odie Monahan and Joseph Dirickx as well as Mesdames Henry Soubielle and Victor Graber.

Mrs. Berend Bremer will do the commentary for the coutouriere costumes, according to Mrs. James W. Shaffer, ways and means chairman.

Invited to pour at the tea table following the talk are Mrs. Gerald Clark, president of the Quails and Mrs. John Leland, vice president of the Tanagers, both representing other local units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

A few tickets are still available from Mrs. Jerry Walker of Orinda.

After a fine vacation in rainy Portland with the grandchildren we will now get back to our reporting. Flying from Portland to San Francisco on three engines instead of four was a new and not so comfortable experience.

Vi Caldwell, publicity chairman for the Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, reports several items of interest.

Ruth Henry and her daughters Susan and Nancy were recent hostesses at a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Ron Toar, the former Mary Bowman. Guests included neighbors and out of town friends and relatives.

Orinda Scouts Are Busy

Orinda Brownie Troop No. 27 entertained their parents at their leader's home recently. Mrs. Charles Nelson is the leader of this active scout group. The girls received their World Friendship pins and displayed their reports, dolls and posters which they had made to earn their pins.

Members of Troop 27 are Robin Coyle, Linda Wayne, Barry Broderick, Joy Nelson, Nancy Shannon, Shelley Smith, Denice Rosenthal, Sue Patton, Diane Borrmann, Cindy Campbell, Betsey Strong and Krissy Kelley.

Carl and Vesta Rasmusson are looking forward to a vacation in Palm Springs the end of March. Lucky people! — Bill and Dottie Cary have just returned from a few days in the Monterey Bay and Carmel area.

Carol Leland is very busy working with the C.E.C., (Career Exploration Course.) This is the work education program which was pioneered for Miramonte students last year.

This year the C.E.C. will be a part of the summer school program, with credit given.

Tanagers Plan Trade Fair

The Tanagers are now busy planning their "Trade Fair" to be held April 8 and 9 in the Orinda Village area, exact address to be announced soon. They are arduously collecting "next to new" children's clothing, also clothing for the entire family, household goods and antiques for the Fair.

Chairman Ruth Henry says that this will be an excellent opportunity to pick up some really worthwhile bargains. Make note of the dates and watch for the place of the Fair.

Mrs. Gordon Frazell, publicity chairman of the Flamingo Unit, reports some activities of her group. Before going to the Flamingo Floral Tea where she was to pour, Mrs. William White entertained at an early luncheon. Her guests were Mesdms. James Simonds, William Emory, Peter Grayum and Gordon Frazell.

Alpha Xi Delta Alumnae and their husbands had a night to remember with a progressive dinner party with overtones of good old St. Patrick. Saturday evening cocktails were shared at the Robert Gammon home and hostessing the dinner were Jane and Phil Chance. Jane is the Swallows corresponding secretary.

Guests completed a most enjoyable evening with dessert served at the Glen Vivrette home, followed by dancing until the wee small hours. Mrs. M. N. Duncan was the capable lady who made all the arrangements.

Skin Divers at Play

A most interesting trip was that of the Jack Joyce family. Have you ever heard of "Bottom Watchers"? Seems that they are skin divers, one of which is Mr. Joyce.

The three Joyces recently went to Santa Barbara, combining a Bottom Watching with a visit with three aunts of the family. These ambitious skin divers charter a boat and have their fun off one of the coast channel islands.

Mrs. Joyce said that she did not join these deep sea activities. Jack Joyce is a C.P.A. and is on the board of directors of the State C.P.A. He and his wife attended the convention which was held March 16 and 17. Their headquarters were at the Ahwannee in Yosemite Valley.

Kay Arends of the Orinda Orioles, and her husband have returned from a three weeks sojourn in Honolulu. They were accompanied by two couples, old friends who reside in St. Louis, Mo.

Squaw Valley Is Still Fun

Maybe Squaw Valley and the Olympics is getting to be stale news, but we keep hearing of folks who attended those thrilling Wilber and Kathy, were surprised to discover their neighbors, the events. Carol and Dick Leland with their two teenagers, Mickey Jim Seamans together with children Jane, Gordon and Kit on the same train, enroute to the valley.

Gordon and Kit spent most of the night visiting with Mickey and Kathy just three cars away. After a busy day at the Olympics everyone was exhausted so there was no visiting on the way home.

Hank and Marcy Zacharias caught ski fever at the Olympics and therefore spent a weekend early in March at Badger skiing in the rain! Much fun and no broken bones.

The exodus for Squaw Valley for the Olympics included Swallow Unit members and their husbands, the Leo Schells and the James Simonds and their respective families. Both are the proud owners of new cabins at Silver Creek.

Also headed for Squaw Valley but after the Olympics, were the William Emorys of Moraga. They reveled for a few days in active play in the fluffy white stuff. Having recently arrived here from the east they have been missing it.

The Orinda Orioles have completed final arrangements for their Spring Event, the Three Treats and Teas. Dates are April 7, May 12 and June 9. The place is the Orinda Community Church. Tickets are still available at $5 for the trio or $2 for each separate event. Call Mrs. Jerry Walker, ticket chairman at CL 4-3196.

Walnut Branch Rummage Sale Starts Tonight

Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay will hold a rummage sale tonight, from 7 to 9 p.m., and Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the now vacant Niles-Spear Shoe Store, 1370 Main Street, Walnut Creek.

According to Mrs. Edwin C. Litsinger of Pleasant Hill, chairman of the event, the sale will feature new curtain material and Christmas note paper, along with a fur coat and used clothing in good condition.

Assisting her are Mrs. Rodney K. Hall and Mrs. D. Charles Williams, both of Lafayette and Mrs. J. Allen Madison of Walnut Creek.

Alpha Phi Mothers Club Plans Events

Two "April Flowers" fashion show and luncheons will be given by the Alpha Phil Mothers' Club and the Berkeley Alumnae of Alpha Phi.

The Mother's Club luncheon will be held April 21 and the alumnae party on April 22.

In tune with the springtime theme of the events, the Alpha Phi chapter house will be gaily bedecked with spring blossoms.

Among the chairmen assisting with the Mother's Club event are Mrs. J. G. Henrietta and Mrs. George Thompson, both of Lafayette.

Collegiate members of Lambda chapter will be in the limelight at both functions, participating as models. Among them will be Lynn Henrietta of Lafayette.

Mother's Club members who will model include Mrs. George Thompson of Lafayette, Mrs. William Houston of Orinda and Mrs. Thomas Lowry of Alamo.

Gordon Smiths Visit Jungle Gardens

Recently returned from a visit to Sarasota Jungle Gardens during their vacation trip to Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith and their daughter Carol of 21 Crest View Drive, Orinda.

Tea To Honor Anniversary

Sigma Kappa sorority will honor the fiftieth year of the founding of Lambda chapter at the University of California with a tea on Sunday, from 3 to 6 p.m.

The party will be held at the Chapter House in Berkeley and the following members from the Diablo area will assist with hostessing and receiving: Danville, Mrs. Richard Hamilton; Lafayette, Mrs. Ivan Brandt, Mrs. George Richardson and Mrs. H. G. Noack; Concord, Miss Elda Eggert and Mrs. James S. Slusser; Orinda, Mrs. Lawrence Harper, Mrs. James Duffy, Mrs. Robert Hooker and Mrs. W. E. Patton; Walnut Creek, Mrs. Gene Stevens and Mrs. Daniel Murphy.

Phi Kappa Tau To Honor New Pledges

Mothers of new pledges will be honored Thursday at a meeting of the Phil Kappa Tau Mothers Club. Among those to be honored is Mrs. K. O. Bone of Lafayette.

After lunching with their sons at the Berkeley Chapter house, the mothers will hold a business meeting to complete plans for the annual Family Dinner on May 8. Mrs. Paul Albright of Lafayette, president, will conduct the meeting.

A scholarship committee will choose three boys who will receive Mothers' Club Scholarship awards at the Family Dinner.

Ann Reher To Lecture At Forum

The Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum will present its final program of the spring season on April 5 at Diablo Country Club.

"Sugar and Spice" is the title of the talk to be given by Anne Reher.

The talk will be a critical examination of today's women and their problems. Mrs. Reher's presentation of the subject she discusses accentuates her depth of approach which is rooted in expert research.

She received her B.A. in history and philosophy at Loretta Heights College in Denver and her masters from Mt. St. Mary's College in Los Angeles. She is married to the noted violist, Sven Reher, and the mother of five children.

Mrs. Harmon Howard will introduce the speaker. Mrs. John Blemer, co-ordinator of the Forum, and Mrs. William Hale Jr., ticket chairman, will greet guests in the foyer. Mrs. Thomas Brighton will decorate for the occasion.

Tanager's Trade Fair Place Set

The Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center announced that their "Trade Fair" will be held at 19 Orinda Way (downstairs in back of the Orinda Furniture and Interiors) on April 8 and 9 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Featured in the "Trade Fair" will be "next to new" clothing, household goods and an antique booth.

Mrs. Arthur Henry is chairman of this affair. Helping her on the committee are Mrs. Elbert Wayne, Mrs. Edwin Roberts, Mrs. R. J. Hudacheck, Mrs. John Pearson, Mrs. James Seaman, Mrs. Robert Coyle, Mrs. William Broebeck and Mrs. Dwight Dickinson who will be in charge of the antique booth.

Alumnae To Install Officers

The East Bay Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will meet for dessert and a general membership meeting at Sigma Chapter House on Wednesday, at 8 p.m. to welcome Mrs. Robert France, alumnae director of the Western District.

Mrs. France will discuss the problems of alumnae chapters and conduct an informal discussion group.

Among the officers who will be installed at this meeting are Mrs. Calvin Duncan of Orinda. Mrs. Duncan is the president elect.

Job's Daughters Have a Whirl

March has been a month of busy activity for Bethel 218 of Lafayette. On March 17 the Grand Guardian of the State of California was given a hearty welcome by Bethel 247 Danville, 238 Walnut Creek and 218 Lafayette.

These Job's Daughters Bethels joined together to display their initiation ceremony. Six girls were initiated. The honored queens who presided were the following: Ann Fraser of Danville, Carolyn Canty of Walnut Creek and Robert Hawk of Lafayette.

Another joint activity was an ice-skating party held in Walnut Creek on March 20. Bethel 218 and 247 joined with the De Molays in a fun-filled evening.

Bethel 218 had a family night dinner on March 28 which was held at the Lafayette - Orinda Presbyterian Church. Some of the girls modeled clothes from Feminine Fancies of Orinda.

Bethel 218 welcomes Lyn Whiggins, Linda Lewis, Patricia Low and Kathleen Phillips who were initiated last month.

Pat Tharsing Pledged To Kappa Alpha Theta

Miss Pat Tharsing of 3311 Freeman Road has been pledged to the Kappa Alpha Theta National Fraternity at Fresno State College where she is a freshman.

Miss Tharsing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Tharsing, was one of seven young women to become a pledge of the Gamma Chi Chapter of the fraternity in recent services.

Sorority Learns Of Engagement

Sharon Lynn Glotfelty recently revealed her engagement to Garland Ashley Harrison by passing the traditional box of candy to her Alpha Iota sorority sisters at Armstrong College.

A graduate of Acalanes High School, Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Glotfelty of Lafayette. While at Acalanes she was affiliated with Daphne Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Sunlight on Mrs. Joseph Fleming...

Dynamic Civic Worker, She's Wife & Mother, Too

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Home for Mrs. Joseph P. Fleming is 41 Belinda Drive, Pleasant Hill Drive, where she happily cares for five-year-old daughter Denise and 16-month-old son Darrin Patrick.

Highlight of the day for mother, children and Tingo, a 75 lb. collie, is the hour that Daddy arrives home from work. Mrs. Fleming said, "Without my husband I would never be able to do anything, he is just marvelous about helping with everything."

Known to so many people in Pleasant Hill by her activities with the Civic Council, Flood Fight Council and Sherman Acres Home Owners Association, few realize that Eva Fleming is also a young attractive mother deeply interested in her home.

SHE MANAGES to combine homelife and community activities, remarking, "by just trying to keep organized, if I start out well organized I can stay organized all day."

Organization has been a good key for Mrs. Fleming, for her accomplishments are many. Now honorary chairman of the Sherman Acres Home Owners' Association, she has served the association as president and chairman of many committees.

At the present she is encouraging people in Sherman Acres, by personal contact, to register to vote. She herself is a deputy county registrar. Eva Fleming is also assisting the chairman of the committee to collect funds from homeowners which will buy spraying service for trees in the area, a yearly project.

NOT ALL OF MRS. Fleming's activities have been civic, in a governmental sense, for she is also an active member of Miraposa Guild, serving John Muir Hospital. The guild's next project is staffing Birdie's Toy House tomorrow, when all profit from sales will be used for the hospital.

A lady who said, "I am a frustrated writer, I can write better than I can speak," Mrs. Fleming from all observations does speak very well. Now a key person in the Flood Fight Council warning system, she has been a staunch supporter of all Pleasant Hill water problems.

Serving on the committee for cheaper water, she helped with the stupendous task of educating and encouraging the vote in the 32 precincts involved. She also served on the committee for annexation.

Mrs. Fleming's suggestion for women interested in civic affairs who would like to contribute time was as follows: "I really just drifted into this work. We have local bridge clubs and we were concerned with our local affairs. Actually I started by joining the Sherman Acres Homeowners Association, then one thing led to another."

SHE SUGGESTED that homeowners associations were an excellent place for a newcomer to begin serving." A person can start," she remarked, "by joining an association and really learning what is going on around them and then branch out to other things."

At home the Flemings enjoy reading together, particularly reading to their children. Visits to friends and family life occupy most of their free time. Mrs. Fleming said, "We would like to go camping later on when the children are older, but right now we stay close to home."

Steak, "barbecued, fried or broiled" is the family's favorite dish. The other family favorite is Tingo. Tingo has been trained never to leave the family yard boundaries and as neighbors will testify, he doesn't.

PATIENT TRAINING on Mrs. Fleming's part accomplished what to so many dog owners is a near miracle. Her recipe. "When he was a pup, every time he left the yard, we sent him to his bed. He likes to be with us and will do almost anything to avoid being sent to his bed, and he has been real wonderful about it."

Looking forward to increasing pleasure with her family as the children grow older, Mrs. Fleming plans to continue her civic activities, but urges other young mothers to join the pleasure of community work.

She said, "Anyone who would like to donate their time will be most welcome."

TOGETHERNESS is sheer joy for Mrs. Eva Fleming, daughter Denise and son Darrin Patrick. Even Tingo, the collie, snuggles down happily to share family reading sessions. —Sun photo by Bob Rush.

Orinda Women's Club Welcomes New Members

The Orinda Woman's Club welcomed 23 prospective members at a dessert and coffee Wednesday in the home of Mrs. David Edwards. Hostesses were the club's officers, under the leadership of Mrs. Clifford Campbell, president.

Members of the board and major committee chairmen gave the new members short talks on the past history and present aims of the community service group.

Mrs. David Edwards, membership chairman, then introduced the new members-to-be, who are Mesdames John Banker, E. L. Black, Jack Cash, Eugene Edwards, Harold Engman, Jack Hughes, Ken Humphreys, Walter J. Jaeger, C. G. Markley, Dale Merriam, William Miner, Eugene Monroe, Sigmund L. Milford, Tom Myers, D. R. McCaulou, Harold Sage, Martin Styles, D. A. Texdahl, Herbert C. Ward, Earl Evans and James Dana.

Tau Nu Chapter Gives Preferential Tea

The climax of rushing activities of Tau Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was a "Preferential Tea" held at the home of Mrs. Wallace Tyacke of 112 Adria Drive, Pleasant Hill, last Sunday.

Pouring were Mrs. Don Williams, president, and Mrs. Tyacke, junior past president. The official hostess was Mrs. Jim Iverson, vice-president.

Honored guests were Mrs. Arthur Herring of Berkeley, past sponsor of the chapter, and the new members the Mesdames Charles O'Bryan, Garth Duncan, Dale Matson and Charles Berry.

All chapter members of Diablo Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi will participate in the Ritual of Jewels Degree and the Pledge Degree, Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. at the Gold Nugget in Concord. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Wallace Tyacke of Tau Nu, Mrs. Kenneth Rishell of Tau Chi and Mrs. Martin Rockey of Tau Omicron.

Tioga Guild Workshops Prepare for Big Roundup

Red Barn tickets are circulating in the San Ramon Valley area for the "Tioga Roundup" barn dance being sponsored by the Tioga Guild of Woman's Auxiliary to John Muir Memorial Hospital, to be held in Diablo at Silva's Barn on May 7.

Committee members consisting of all 22 active members of this guild are hard at work on various committees. The decorating committee headed by Mrs. Nickolas J. Paris of Danville, have set up workshop meetings for all Wednesdays in April at 10:00 a.m., at Mrs. Paris' residence at 7 Ramon Court, Danville.

This Tioga Roundup will be the one and only fund-raising event sponsored by this local guild consisting of 33 women from the Alamo, Danville, Diablo and San Ramon area in active, inactive and associate membership capacities.

Proceeds will help to contribute toward the $15,000 pledge to the proposed John Muir Memorial Hospital from the Women's Auxiliary which plan to endow the nursery of the hospital.

Theme of the roundup, which offers ballroom (not square or folk) dancing and refreshments will be in informal roundup barn dance style. Predominating colors to be used will be red and white.

A seven-piece orchestra, "The Starlites," led by Gary Xavier, will play for dancing from 9 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. These "Starlites" have entered the "Bourbon Street Beat" high school jazz orchestra contest sponsored by the American Broadcasting Company.

Mrs. Frank Pigeon Jr., vice president of this guild, and Mrs. William Diehl are co-chairmen of this event, assisted by: Mrs. John Becker, refreshment chairman; assisted by: Mesdames Robert Brown, Fred C. Weidemann; decorations: Mrs. Nickolas Paris and Mrs. Sam Burks, co-chairmaning this committee, assisted by Mesdames Bruce Marhenke, Vern Thomas, Herman Sandkuhle Jr.

Food: Mrs. Edwin F. Laine, who is president of the Tioga Guild, assisted by Mesdames Marvin H. Daniels, George Olson, Reid Cameron; tickets, Mesdames John Miller and John Hartwell; wagon wheel award, made by Mrs. George Olson assisted by Mrs. Gordon P. Van Nuys; traffic and parking, Mrs. Herman J. Sandkuhl Jr.; publicity, Mrs. Alfred Jones.

Orinda P.E.O. Elects Officers

Chapter OT P.E.O. will meet next Friday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. L. G. Foster, 109 Coral Drive, Orinda. Mrs. Foster is reciprocity representative for the chapter.

The recently elected officers are Mrs. John Gilmor, president; Mrs. John Whinnery, vice president; Mrs. J. A. Lewis, recording secretary; Mrs. P. A. Lathrap, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. E. Winkler, treasurer; Mrs. W. W. Voster, chaplain; and Mrs. H. W. Hawes, guard.

Reception To Honor Justweds

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Alexander V. Morales, whose marriage was recently announced, will be given at the Casa Orinda from 2 to 4 p.m. on April 9 by the bride's parents.

The former Pamela Jane Bauman, Mrs. Morales is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bauman of Orinda. A graduate of Miramonte High School, she attended Fresno State.

Mr. Morales is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morales of Montebello. He will graduate from Los Angeles State College in June with a major in commercial art.

The newlyweds will be in Orinda during the Easter school vacation, coming from their home in Alhambra. One hundred friends and relatives will greet them at the Casa Orinda on April 9.

Refreshments will include a tiered wedding cake, and buffet of ham and turkey. Azaleas and camellias with traditional wedding decor will set the scene.

Acalanes Group Meets Monday

Acalanes Chapter of the Daughters of The American Revolution will meet Monday at the Berkeley home of Mrs. C. B. Emery, 2 Rosemont Ave.

A business meeting will be held after the 12:30 p.m. dessert. Mrs. Clarence Smith of Orinda and Mrs. James Box of Concord will report on the state conference held in Los Angeles with special emphasis on the Resolutions.

Regent Mrs. James Box reports that Mrs. Harvey Lyon of Oakland was elected state chaplain at this conference.

Mrs. Minnie Ellen Hastings of Albany will speak on American Indians. The chapter requests members to bring good used clothing to the meeting.

Special Luncheon Meets Planned for May, and April

Two special luncheon meetings are planned by the Women's Club of Walnut Creek.

April luncheon guests will be the officers and members of the Junior Women's Club which is sponsored by the Senior Club. This annual get-together will honor the present and incoming presidents of both clubs, and these four leaders will form the receiving line.

The members and their guests will be entertained by a program of music and drama arranged by Mrs. Shermann Camp, program chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. William Palmer and Mrs. Henry Peshong.

At the May luncheon, which will be the club's 49th birthday party, the past club presidents will be guests of honor. A special program highlighting the club history is traditional for this event.

It will be followed by the installation of the 1960-61 officers. The 19 members who have joined the club since last May, will do the serving.

Both luncheons are being planned by the directors, Mrs. Fred Hartley, Mrs. E. R. Bells and Mrs. Patricia Anderson. Decoration will be arranged by Mesdames Carol Young, Barney Gilbert, George Wheatley, Clifford Geist, Glen Mason and Charles Hamilton. Mrs. Frank Kupper will take care of the amenities.

Reservations for the two luncheons, which will be held at the clubhouse on the regular meeting days, will be taken by Mrs. Ray Rosel and Mrs. Karl Baesler, assisted by Mrs. Delmar Brussard.

Orinda Guild to Present Foreign Student Panel

The Orinda Community Church Women's Guild will present three American Field Service exchange students in a semi-panel discussion at their luncheon on Tuesday, according to program chairman, Mrs. Charles Nelson. The moderator will be Mrs. Thomas Mika.

The exchange students, Widi Saebani, Enrique Lopez-Bruno, and Bob Newman are members of the senior class at Miramonte High School.

Widi Saebani is from Jogjakarta, the island of Java in Indonesia. She has been studying Javanese dancing for many years and also has a lovely voice and sings with a school choral group. Widi comes from a family of 9 children and her parents manufacture batiks. Widi is staying with the Frank Browns of Orinda.

Enrique Lopez-Bruno is from Madrid, Spain, and is staying with the Kirk Miles. In the recent Moraga Lions Club oratory contest Enrique won a cup for first place award, speaking on "People to people—a way to world peace."

His parents are educators, owning and running their own school in Madrid.

Bob Newman is Miramonte's exchange student, having gone to Italy to stay with the Meschi family in Lecco near Milan. Meschi is an architect and also manager of the National Touring Association.

Luncheon will be served at noon in the Fellowship Hall by members of Circle III headed by Mrs. R. W. Brown, circle chairman.

88-Year-Old Will Speak At Luncheon

The Lafayette Women's Club will hold a luncheon at 12 noon tomorrow at the Veterans Memorial Building, Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. R. H. Lockey.

The program, arranged by Vincent Lombardo, club historian, will honor Mrs. Jenny Dewing Rosenberg. Mrs. Rosenberg is the club's oldest charter member, as well as one of the oldest living members of a pioneer family in Lafayette.

Hostesses for the luncheon are Mesdames Stanley Deitrick and George M. Johnson.

SIGMA KAPPA former past national president, Mrs. Lawrence Harper of Orinda, will assist at the fiftieth birthday tea honoring the founding of Sigma Kappa's Lambda Chapter. The tea will be held Sunday at the Chapter House.

City-County Thorofare System Becomes Reality

The Contra Costa County City-County Thorofare System became a reality last week with the adoption of the system as it lies in the unincorporated area of the county by the Board of Supervisors.

Board action followed approval of the city portions of the system by the county's 11 cities.

THE SYSTEM constitutes a second level of highways supplementary to the state highway system in the county and provides an integrated network of major arterials which are laid out without regard to political boundary lines.

"The City-County Thorofare System is a culmination of the efforts of many individuals and organizations working for better highways," Donald Campbell, mayor of Concord and chairman of the county highway advisory committee said in comment.

"However, much hard work remains before all of the portions of the new system are constructed and placed in service," Campbell added. "The estimated cost of the system at present day prices is roughly $168,000,000 and construction will be carried out over a period of years."

THE SYSTEM of about 360 miles will be continuously reviewed to keep it up to date and adequate for changing traffic conditions. Proposed additions and deletions will be studied by the city-county engineering advisory committee and changes will be made with the county and cities involved working together cooperatively.

Sun Sets New Want Ad Record-623"

An amazing 623 individual classified ads appeared in last week's Sun Shopping News and was duplicated in each of the Sun subscription newspapers.

This is an all-time high for the local newspaper which has led all others for years in total classified lineage.

The Sun's 623 ads compares with the Times' 363 ads and Walnut Kernel's 115 ads.

The overwhelming majority of classified ads in The Sun simply means that you as a reader will have much more to choose from, and as an ad customer, you are using the most widely read classified section in the area, since people naturally look for The Sun each week as a solution to their problems.

The Sun's lineage is growing each week, according to Classified Manager Lynne Cooper.

When she came to The Sun last year, the total ad count was about 400 each week, even then far above the other local papers.

"It appears that our area is growing in every way but square miles.

Begonias Offer Choice of Style, Planting, Color

Gardeners who go for tuberous begonias are rarely lukewarm on the subject. They'll tell you "they're the most beautiful . . . most exotic . . . most everything." . . . And according to the California Association of Nurserymen, all these superlatives rarely do justice to this spectacular flower.

At this season of the year you can start shopping for seedling plants at your nursery to be transplanted to the garden as soon as you get them home.

AND WHAT a far-reaching choice you have! There are ruffled double and picotee forms that resemble camellias — others that look like unbelievable roses, carnation doubles, and of course the hanging basket or Pendula form.

Color-wise you can run the gauntlet from red, scarlet, pink, white, yellow, orange to salmon . . . mixing, matching or massing to your heart's delight.

Many aficionados of the begonia insist that the hanging basket type is the ultimate satisfaction because it is the answer to a landscaper's dream. With its beautiful cascading habit, these may be grown effectively in baskets or containers or spilling over walls. Each hanging basket will shower you with hundreds of blooms.

BUT IT IS only fair to say that there are as many others who exclaim: "Why put all your begonias in a basket when a mass planting at your feet or interspersed in a bed of greenery is such an immediate sensation." There seems to be only one answer to this problem: Get some of both.

Plant your seedlings or sprouted tubers in partial shade in a wind-free location. Perfect drainage is necessary so consult your C.A.N. nurseryman about improving your soil. Keep begonias moist after planting. It won't be long now!

Home and Garden Page Worthwhile

However long you have been a "green thumb" artist, there is always something new under the sun, and those little tips and discoveries appear regularly in The Sun's Home and Garden Page, printed each week!

The Sun's special column will show you how to get more out of those hours.

There are informative articles on plants which are handy and at the same time just right for your surroundings. Sometimes they tell how and where to get more information on certain items, like "native plants."

Read The Sun's Home and Garden Page! It's another offering by which The Sun makes subscribing the best deal in the world for the suburban homeowner!

Your Garden

No Sight Is Lovelier Than a Cascading Plant

Can you name a more appealing sight in any garden than a blooming plant that cascades its color over the edge of a wall or spills it over the rim of a suspended container? Name it and you can have it. To us there is no sight more lovely.

For this alone it would be worth seeking a house with one or more retainer walls to landscape. And if you garden on the level, it's worth installing some raised planters just to see the contents tumbling down. Hanging baskets are to be planted whatever the contour of your land.

Plant for Fragrance Right Now

A knowing gardener has more than a green thumb. He has a trained nose. So says the California Association of Nurserymen, along with a reminder that many fragrant plants and shrubs are available for planting at this time.

Take the Daphne If a shapely shrub with rich evergreen foliage offset with perfect clusters of pink and white flowers doesn't please you to pieces in the very middle of winter—then consider that this shrub is among the most fragrant of blooms.

IF YOU HAVE ever stopped at a sidewalk flower stand to purchase a tiny sprig of this delicious stuff for your lapel and paid a fancy price for it, you will doubly enjoy having it handy in your own garden. The most popular variety is the Winter Daphne—either the white or yellow edge.

Another shrub that rates a big "oh" for fragrance is the Osmanthus. The Sweet Olive as it is sometimes called is tall growing, the fragrant white flowers hidden under a mass of foliage in early summer.

ALSO POPULAR with California gardeners is the Delavay Osmanthus which grows only about five feet and as wide as it is tall. Under a window or in a tub on porch or patio its spicy fragrance is a sheer delight to the senses.

Other shrubs to tickle your fancy as well as your nose are the fragrant viburnums, the Mexican Orange, Clematic Armandi, Meyer Lemon—and, well, the list is long and sweet.

LIKE ANY gardener with a bug for some particular phase of gardening, we have special favorites among trailing plants. A member of the California Association of Nurserymen can show you more than we'll consider here, but we'd bet a nickel he has his favorites, too.

The little-used Ground Morning Glory is near the top of our list of trailing perennials. It is well behaved despite its name and sends its gray-green foliage tumbling over a wall to show the inch-wide blue flowers all summer into fall. Use it in full sun and water when you get around to it.

In pots, hanging baskets or atop a wall, the Italian Bellflower spews its myriad of star-shaped little blooms of white or blue. Give it more water than Ground Morning Glory and perhaps a little more shade for most appeal.

THE AUSTRALIAN Bluebell has much to recommend it. Gardeners who have not grown it are sure to wonder what took them so long to start. Masses of small blue bells grace this trailer through summer. Excellent for retaining walls, fine for planters and pots, it takes some shade as it is grown away from the coast.

A few dozen annual trailing lobelia will go far to make life worth living. Use them either in baskets, planters, or raised beds for the tiny, glowing blue blooms. Such trailers as Begonias, Ivy Geraniums and Fuchsias need no introduction here. Such is their worth that few, if any, gardeners haven't grown them.

Plant Some More Gladiolus Bulbs For Longer Bloom

Here are items for gardeners to check this week:

Another planting of gladiolus bulbs is in order this week for a longer succession of blooms.

To insure healthy, free flowering roses, set up a spray and feeding program now and follow it in months to come. A little care goes a long way and the job is easy if planned ahead.

A window box or several pots of herbs outside the back door can make a wonderful contribution to the culinary arts in your household.

Use yellow marguerites liberally in sunny garden spots. They are so easy to grow, long lasting and so colorful, every garden should have several.

Start thinking about container plantings to keep you company in outdoor living areas this summer.

Cal Freshman Leads Playoff Wins for Stable

Shoe Stable won the championship playoff in the Danville Basketball League with victories over Diamond Building Materials and Valley Pioneer, Bert Frazier, secretary of the league, announced this week.

The playoffs matched the teams that finished in the four top positions during regular season play.

SHOE STABLE disposed of Diamond, winner of the league, by a score of 70-64 and cinched the title by defeating Pioneer, 66-52.

Camden Wall, 6 foot, 9 inch University of California freshman center, was the difference in both games, players of the losing sides conceded.

Wall, tough on the backboards, also came through with decisive points at critical times.

EARLIER IN THE week Pioneer won the right to play for the championship title by beating Yankee Sport Shop in a close game, 50-47.

High scorers for Shoe Stable, sponsored by John May, during the Diamond game were Dick Johnson with 22 and Jim Black with 21. Both are students at the University of California and members of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. Wall is a member of the same house.

Bob Gomez was high point man for Diamond with 19.

IN THE Pioneer game, Johnson came through with 20 points and Black with 13. Wall scored 15. John Longaker was high for the losers with 26.

Individual cups will be awarded Shoe Stable for winning the playoffs and Diamond for winning the league. Trophies will also be given sponsors of both teams.

Big Hitters Featured in Knights' Baseball Win

The Las Lomas Knights, playing at home, posted a 10-1 win over the San Ramon Wolves in their league opener last Thursday.

The Knights, in registering the win, scored in every frame but the first as they outhit the visitors, 8-3. Seven errors hurt the Danville nine while Las Lomas had but one miscue.

Bill Remy on the hill for the Knights struck out six batters and for 5⅔ innings had a no-hitter going. At this point the Wolves got their game's total of three hits when with two down Bob Lary doubled while Roger Ide and Barry Madrid followed with singles.

THE KNIGHTS scored a pair in the second frame when Eric Nankivell and Bob Samuels singled and tok advantage of a San Ramon error to score from second and third after a double steal.

The Knights scored three in the third when Bob Morris homered for the first tally. Murphy walked, Nankivell was safe on an error and both scored on Samuel's double.

The Knights added a run in the fourth as Morris doubled and Murphy scored him with another two-base belt. Morris was the big stick again in the fifth when his double unloaded the bases for three runs.

Each club scored one in the final seventh. Morris wound up with a home run and a pair of doubles to make it 3 for 4, while Bob Samuels, with 3 for 4, had a double and a pair of singles, with Nankivell hitting 2 for 3 on a pair of singles.

Batteries: Las Lomas — Remy and Stephenson; San Ramon — Collas, Roger 5 and Madrid.

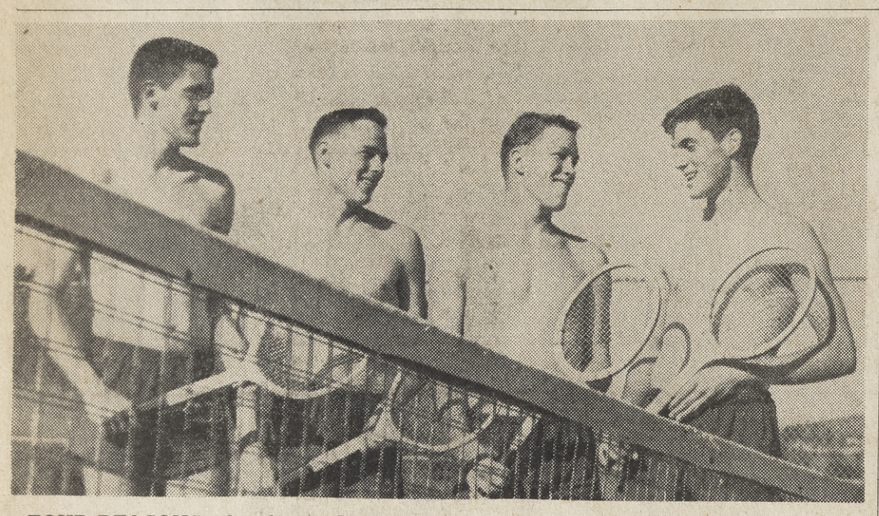
Miramonte Nine Scores Upsets In First Two Games



FOUR REASONS why the Acalanes Dons are highly favored to win the Foothill Division's tennis championship are these returning lettermen from last year's squad, which wound up in a three-way tie for the title with Piedmont and Miramonte. From left to right are Neal Freeman, Ray Rocca, Lee Egland and Miller Freeman. This year, with the addition of Charles Trippe, exchange student from England, the Don netmen appear to have all it takes for the title.

Ram Thinclads Drop Relay Run, Meet to Pirates

The Pittsburg Pirates won the relay in the varsity track meet held with the Pleasant Hill Rams last Friday and that gave them a 61½-51½ win rather than a tie had the final event been reversed.

Top performers for the Rams were a pair of big point-getters in Tom Webb and Roger Foulk.

Webb won the 100-yard dash in 10.2 and then copped the 220 with a 23.2 clocking. Foulk nabbed a first in the shot (49-10) and won the discus at 146-11. In addition he took points with a third in the high hurdles.

In the Bees the Pittsburg Pirates took seven first places and had a tie in another to win 63⅔-48⅓.

First place winners in the varsity meet were as follows:

120 high hurdles—Harris, (P), 15.7; 880—San Fillipo, (P), 2:03.1; 100—Webb (PH), 10.2; 220—Webb (PH), 23.2; 440—Grillo (P); 180 low hurdles—Harris, 20.9; mile—Brodie (PH), 4:40.3; shot putt—Foulk (PH), 49.10; discus—Foulk (PH), 146-11; pole vault—Brockett (P), 12; broad jump — Williams (P), 21-5½; high jump—Tie; Eslinger (PH), and J. Harris (P); 5-7; 880 relay (P): Harris, Grillo, Brown, Williams, 1:36.6.

League Baseball Play Featured Throughout Week

The schedule for next week is as follows: Tuesday—San Ramon plays at Acalanes; Las Lomas hosts Piedmont, with Miramonte getting the bye.

Thursday—Miramonte plays at San Ramon, and Piedmont is at Acalanes; Las Lomas bye.

The Pleasant Hill Rams were scheduled to open league play at home with Pacifica yesterday weather permitting. The Rams have a full week of play on tap coming up as on Tuesday they play at Clayton Valley in a league game, travel to Martinez for a makeup practice game with Alhambra High on Wednesday and wind up the week with another league tilt on Thursday at Antioch.

Collar's Near No-Hitter Leads Wolves in Opener

The San Ramon Wolves closed the door on the Piedmont High baseball nine in their league opener last Tuesday when they shut out the visiting Clan, 5-0.

Don Collar, on the hill for San Ramon, came close to a no-hitter as he set Piedmont down with one hit and never had a ball hit out of the infield during his seven-inning stint.

Piedmont hurt their cause with four errors to San Ramon's one.

THE DANVILLE nine took charge when they opened the initial frame with a three-run outburst. Lead off hitter Bob Lang walked, stole second and came home with run number one when Roger Ide doubled.

Glenn Miller walked and after pilfering second rolled on home on Wayne Forsell's single with Miller going to third on the play.

Catcher Barry Madrid was out on a fielder's choice but received credit for an RBI when Miller scored.

Batteries: San Ramon — Collar and Madrid; Piedmont — Clayton and Rawley.

Thunderbirds Indicate Junior Football Spread

By ERWIN MATTSON

La Morinda is the name of the local area's entry in the Pop Warner football league next fall.

The name is a "catchy" one and truly representative of the area from which it will draw: Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda. A recent dinner meeting held in Orinda found a group of enthusiastic backers on hand to get information and formulate plans along with head coach Pete Villa.

It is one more step in the development of a rounded sports program in the area, and like youth baseball, the chances are that it will spread throughout the area.

Pleasant Hill has the Pioneers and, last year in their first year of operation they came strong, particularly at the end of the season.

The difficult part is getting started as the first season has the heavy initial expense, since one must start from scratch as far as equipment is concerned.

Rains have forced postponement of a number of athletic contests. Track meets in general will be rescheduled in the near future or dropped.

Baseball has provisions for makeup games. The two dates for postponed games in the Foothill Division are May 10 and 26.

Speaking of baseball, the Miramonte Matadors are off to a flying start in the Foothill Division as they toppled the two favorites in their first two outings, nailing Acalanes, 1-0, and Las Lomas, 4-2.

It looks like a race down to the wire as each club meets the other three times in the course of the schedule. Miramonte baseball mentor Bob Foster has done a top job in readying his club mentally and physically.

One thing certain—he isn't going to be easy to catch.

The Acalanes Dons held their sports award dinner for basketball and wrestling Tuesday night in the Acalanes cafeteria.

It was a packed house for the fathers-and-sons night, as members of the team received their special awards. Basketball varsity coach Dave Glines presented letters as did Bee coach Bert Barnett.

Special awards went to Paul Colin for his all county selection and he also received the Rotary Club's outstanding player trophy.

We presented the wrestlers with block letters with special awards going to Denny Toll as the wrestler who won the North Coast heavyweight title and placed second in the state.

Jim Holden was given a trophy as the most courageous wrestler while Jerry MacPherson received the block "A" belt buckle as the outstanding senior wrestler.

Each of the coaches in turn were recipients of gifts from their respective squads.

San Ramon Relays Are Tomorrow

The track fans will get a preview of the power in the Foothill Division when all of the track teams take part in the San Ramon Invitational Relays to be held at Danville tomorrow.

All members of the circuit which includes Acalanes, Las Lomas, San Ramon, Piedmont and Del Valle will take part, plus Alhambra of Martinez which becomes a member of the new Foothill League which goes into operation next fall.

The event will be held in the form of a relay in each event which means the combined totals of four participants in each event.

Acalanes Loses Practice Contest

The Encinal Jets won a 2-0 ball game from the Acalanes Dons in a game played at the Lafayette field Friday.

The non-league game found each club getting five hits and the Jets collecting single runs in the third and sixth frames.

Acalanes had three errors while the visitors played errorless ball.

Batteries: Acalanes — Toll and Cosso; Encinal — White and Bowers.

Strain Leads Dons' Win Over Pleasant Hill

The Acalanes Dons got back in the win column last Tuesday when they defeated the Pleasant Hill Rams 6-5 in a game played at the Lafayette field.

The Rams scored first in the top of the third when Mikkey Syzklowski singled and advanced to second on a passed ball, with Bob Juarez following with a single to score him.

THE DONS came back in their turn at bat to take the lead as they scored two when Don Nelson and John Jones came home when Lou Pejovich singled.

Acalanes scored again in the fourth as Tom Strain doubled and hit pay dirt on Don Nelson's single, making it 3-1.

The Don lead was short lived however as the Rams with singles by Don Damerac, Dave Dlark, Szyklowski and Bob Kishi along with a walk to Ray Newhahn produced four runs and a 5-3 lead.

THE PICTURE changed again as Acalanes took a 6-5 lead in the bottom of the frame when they scored three runs as Steve Kosach was safe at first on an error, Pejovich singled and Lou Cosso drew a base on balls to load the bags.

Stew Fox hit a grounder to short and all hands were safe with the throw to first wide and Kosach swing.

Tom Strain followed with a single to produce two more runs.

NEITHER CLUB scored the rest of the way as the Dons wound up out in front 6-5. Acalanes had seven hits with Tom Strain hitting a pair of singles and a double to get 3 for 3.

The Rams had six hits while each team was charged with two errors.

Batteries: Acalanes - Jones, Strain (5) and Cosso; Pleasant Hill - Juarez, Kishi (5) and Howerton.

Matadors Shine Against Acalanes and Las Lomas

The Miramonte Matadors were placed third by the pre-season dope in the Foothill Division baseball race, but as things now stand they are on top of the standings, as they have defeated Acalanes, 1-0, and Las Lomas 4-2, in that order.

Playing shutout ball, the Matadors combined clutch pitching and a tight defense to set the favored Dons down in the league opener at Orinda last Thursday.

Bruce Hancock, on the mound for the winners, set the Dons down with three hits and while Miramonte had only four, the Mats got a pair of them in the clutch and that made the difference.

HANCOCK . . ally won his own ball game in the fourth inning when he singled with one down. Pete Yedidia bunted and all hands were safe when pitcher Tom Strain's throw to second on the attempted force was late.

Bob Williams followed with a single to score Hancock with the game's only run.

Hancock struck out six and walked four while Strain struck out five and walked five.

DON NELSON, Lou Pejovich and Jim Holden all with singles accounted the o[illegible] hits the Dons had.

Randy Thaman and Bill Hilger with singles accounted for Miramonte's other two safe blows.

Batteries: Miramonte — Hancock and Hilger; Acalanes — Strain and Cosso.

TUESDAY found the Matadors upending Las Lomas on the Walnut Creek diamond, 4-2, despite the fact they were outhit, 7-3, while each club committed three errors.

The Mats put four big runs on the scoreboard in the third inning as they took advantage of three errors, three walks and a timely single to turn the trick.

The inning opened with the Mats' first baseman Jack Gilbert drawing a walk, and he wound up on second as Randy Thaman laid down a sacrifice bunt.

MARIO ALBO and Brad Peters drew walks to plug the bases and when Bill Hilger's grounder to short was booted all hands were safe and Gilbert scored.

Bob Welch popped up for an out but when Hancock hit a roller out in front of the plate Albo tallied on catcher Harold Stephenson's high throw to first.

Pete Yedidia followed with a clutch single between short and third to score Peters and Hilger.

THAT ENDED the Mats' scoring for the inning and the game but the four big runs proved to be more than enough as the Knights managed but single runs in the fifth and seventh.

The first Knight run came when Harold Stephenson came home from third after having singled and advancing on an error and a fielder's choice.

The Knights made a final seventh inning bid when Jim Murphy walked, went to second on a fielder's choice and reached third on a wild pitch. Murphy scored standing up on Bob Samuel's double hit but with two down Hilger put out the fire as he struck out Dick Couch to end the inning and the game.

Batteries: Las Lomas—Just and Stephenson; Miramonte—Hancock and Hilger.

Dons Win Three-Way Track Meet

The Acalanes Dons dominated a three-way meet held at Orinda last Friday afternoon as they took 10 first places to pace themselves to a win with 78½ points to 34 for Las Lomas and 27½ for Miramonte.

Jeff Neighbor toured the 880 in 2:00.8 for one of the Bay Area's best times, while John Max got off a hefty 151-2 in the discus—the second best mark to date in the Bay Area.

Events and their winners were as follows:

120 high hurdle—Fink, Las Lomas, 16.4; 880—Neighbor, Miramonte, 2:00.8; 100—Rinne, Acalanes, 10.2; 440—Corse, Acalanes, 52.4; 180 low hurdle—La Rossa, Acalanes, 21.2; 220—Rinne, Acalanes, 23.1; mile—Thompson, Acalanes, 4:39.5.

And high jump—Nichols, Las Lomas, 5-8; broad jump—Scott, Acalanes, 20-3; pole vault—Latone, Acalanes, 11-6; shot put—Dornsife, Acalanes, 47-4; discus—Max, Acalanes, 151-2; 880 relay—Acalanes, 1:34.2.

Family Service Agency Aids Troubled Families

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Troubled families in need of professional guidance to solve their problems can now seek such counseling service close by.

The Contra Costa Family Service Agency with offices in Alamo and Richmond provides professional help through 13 counselors.

Bill Smith, principal of the Fair Oaks School and a a member of the board of directors of the Family Service Agency stated that the service has put professional guidance with in reach of nearly everyone in need.

IT'S AS SIMPLE as this. Residents in central county may dial YE 4-4205, the number of the agency's office in the Alamo Medical Building. In some cases an answering service will take the message, but in all cases the caller will be contacted usually within the same day.

Calls are confidential, and after the need is determined dependent on the problem, a counselor will be assigned to the family or individual in need.

All counselors must have a master's degree and at lesat six years experience in social welfare work. Many of them have far more than this.

Problems handled vary from marital to the child who is a problem at school, and related domestic difficulties. A non-profit organization, the Family Service Agency charges $10 per interview.

THE AGENCY is the outgrowth of the concern of a group of Contra Costans who recognized the need for such a service for the people of the county. With the exception of the Catholic Social Welfare office and a very limited service provided by the county, prior to the inception of this agency a year ago, families in need of counseling had no place to turn.

The Family Service Agency grew gradually. The idea first began to germinate at the time of the White House conferences and Governor's conferences on social welfare, five or six years ago.

At that time, the Community Welfare Council, no longer in existence, was formed. From this council sub-committees grew, exploring the ways to set up a family counseling service.

AFTER THREE years or more of research and work, the present operation went into action. Twice turned down by the United Crusade, the board of directors advanced funds of their own to put the agency in business helping troubled families.

The board at the present time bears the cost of the telephone services and office rent. The counsellors keep their fees. Smith stated the board hopes to receive outside financial help which would permit them to pay a salary to the counselors, thereby enabling the agency to provide help for those who can pay little or nothing for the guidance they seek.

CASE LOADS at both the Richmond and Alamo offices increase each month. With a proven need in the communities, the board is hopeful of United Crusade aid this year.

Judge Manuel Rose is chairman of the board. Members of the board are Bill Smith, Joe Genser, Mrs. C. M. Edgett, Mrs. Leonard Carter, Edward Laplace, Ben Hartinger, Mrs. Meridith Morgan, Ralph Kramer, Franklin Bower and Turner Jones.

Republican Assembly Picks New President

Mrs. Harold Bates has been elected president of the Diablo Valley Republican Assembly.

Other officers are Philip Knox Jr., vice president; Hollis McLaughlin and Laurence Corbett, directors; Jack Pedder, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Nelson, treasurer.

A membership cocktail party will be held April 29.

Capwell's Will Hold Eye Makeup Clinic

Not since Cleopatra has there been such a revival and a burst of enthusiasm for eye make-up. The beauty emphasis this season is definitely on the eyes. Artificial lashes are being worn with flare . . . brilliant colors of liner and matching shadow and mascara are applied to give a luminous glow for evening and a sheer mist for day.

This means skillful and artistic make-up application. "Once you've learned how, you'll see the difference and never be without eye make-up again" . . . or so says the visiting beauty authority from Charles of the Ritz.

TO GIVE YOU the professional touch, Capwell's-Walnut Creek is presenting Miss Edith Balderston next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the cosmetics department to personally supervise you on the fine art of make-up.

This famous beauty authority will diagram your eye make-up on a special chart (which you can take away with you) indicating ways to improve shape and color.

Should your eyes be full lidded, deep or close set, she'll give you corrective help so that your eyes come into beautiful alignment with the rest of your face and immediately become its loveliest feature.

YOU'LL BE introduced to a whole new palette of eye shadow colors, lustrous shades of mascara that literally shimmer on the lashes, and a liquid eye make-up that doesn't streak or rub off.

You'll have special evening make-up chosen for you in dynamic fashion tones, and be taught how to apply them dramatically in an oriental upswept look or a provocative doe-eyed shape.

For day, she'll suggest more conservative colors and subtle application so that your eyes never look theatrically made up. And if you haven't worn eye make-up before because you never learned how, here's a perfect opportunity to give you a new outlook by discovering a while new world of beauty awaiting you as practiced by the most alluring women throughout the ages.

Industrial Permits are Less than '59

Industrial building permits totaled $19,612 in February in Contra Costa County, compared to $59,757 for the same month last year.

Alameda County permits totaled $1,640,30, compared to its total of the previous February of $394,640.

This placed Alameda County highest in the Bay Area.

Ex-Legion Chief Is PTA Speaker

Oakland attorney Malcolm M. Champlin, former special FBI agent and 1954 head of the American Legion in California, will answer the question, "Are Schools the Target of Communism?" before the 32nd District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers in Richmond, Monday morning.

Cal Alumni Appointed to Local Scholarship Group

A total of 36 Diablo area leaders have been named to the 1960 committee to administer the granting of scholarships to high school and junior college graduates under the University of California Alumni Scholarship Program.

The program is carried on by more than 60 local scholarship committees throughout the state. Included in the Diablo area are the communities of Orinda, Lafayette, Diablo-Danville, Alamo, Concord, Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek.

ACCORDING TO Lloyd Scott of Pleasant Hill, chairman of the group this year, the committee hopes to keep pace with increasing high school enrollment by financing additional scholarships this year.

The scholarships are for $400 and are renewable at the university if satisfactory grades are maintained. Letters soliciting financial support have been mailed recently from the Alumni House to all alumni in the area.

Additional money will be raised by the annual Spring Fling, to be held April 22 at the Diablo Country Club. In charge of general arrangements for the dance are the Mesdames Robert Cuenin, William Hale and William Rei, all of Diablo.

LOCAL MEMBERS of the committee and the high school areas they represent are:

Miramonte—Mel Arighi, Francis B. Tobias, Arleigh T. Williams, Mrs. Gregory Engelhard.

Acalanes—Sydney A. Anderson, Henry G. Evans, Dr. Glenn I. Heltne, Donald E. Reichert, William F. Shepard, Dave B. Stewart, Mrs. Jay E. Abernathy, Mrs. Richard L. David, Miss Edna A. Goodale.

SAN RAMON—Dr. Norman E. Betaque, James W. Dieterich Jr., Russell W. Schumacher, Herbert L. Wildenradt Jr., Harry A. Hanson, Mrs. Robert Cuenin, Mrs. William Hale, Mrs. William Rei.

Pleasant Hill—Harold A. Ipson, Lloyd F. Scott, Mrs. Robert C. Wisecarver.

Las Lomas—Hollis McLaughlin, H. Holt Parsons, Fred Vann, Mrs. Robert B. Odell, Mrs. Floyd E. Taylor.

THE REAL THING will be presented by American Field Service exchange students, tonight at 8 at the Las Lomas High. Their talent show will be lively, and open to the public. Shown are Reza Neghabat of Iran and Yaeko Takahashi of Japan. —Sun photo by Bob Rush.

Countries of the World In Talent Show, Tonight

Traditional folk songs and dances will highlight the exchange student talent show tonight at 8 at the Las Lomas High School gym.

The public is invited.

The event is sponsored by the American Field Service Club at the school.

PROCEEDS will help finance the student exchange program.

A donation of 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students will be asked. Special rates are being offered to children's groups, such as Girl and Boy Scouts.

Performers will appear in their native costumes and will tell something about the culture of their countries, according to Julie Bertagnolli, director of the show and Las Lomas' exchange student to Greece last summer.

John Otto, senior and yell leader at Las Lomas, will be master of ceremonies.

APPEARING on the program will be Widi Saebani, Indonesia, and Enrique Lopez-Bruno, Spain, attending Miramonte High School; Yoko Abe, Japan, and Charles Trippe, England, from Acalanes.

Bernard Garnier, France, from Las Lomas; Diana Figueroa, Philippines, from Pleasant Hill; Christos Saccopoulos, Greece, from Mt. Diablo; Yaeko Takahashi, Japan, and Reza Neghabat, from San Ramon; and Puran Etemad and Gena Khamsi, also from Iran, who are attending Diablo Valley College.

Miss Bertagnolli will also appear. She said a surprise skit about a mock "Summit Conference" between France, Spain and England will close the program.

Before the show a pot-luck supper will be held for club members and members of the adult committee working with the program in Walnut Creek.

THE FOREIGN students and members of the Las Lomas staff will be guests of honor.

Funds collected this far are still short of the $2000 goal set for this year, according to Miss Bertagnolli.

The school has applied for both a boy and girl foreign student for next year at a total cost of $1300.

Three junior students are still under consideration for the Americans abroad summer program. They are Van Essayan, Paul Dekar and Don Jensen. The local group will pay part of the cost for the student chosen.

Register to Vote At Local Booths

Volunteer registrars from the League of Women Voters will be available for registering voters up to the April 14 deadline for the primary election, said Mrs. Claire Becker, voters service chairman.

Persons not yet registered may clip and save the following schedule of times and places for registering, Mrs. Becker said.

Orinda Crossroads at the Lucky Market: Next Friday 4 to 7 p.m.; April 2 and 9 at 8 a.m. to 12 noon; April 14, 4 to 7 p.m..

Lafayette at the Safeway: April 2 and 9 at 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 2 to 4 p.m.; April 14 at 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Walnut Creek at the Lucky Market in the Broadway Shopping Center: Today and tomorrow, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; April 13 and 14, to be announced, or call Mrs. Becker.

Pleasant Hill at the Payless Market: Today, 7 to 9 p.m.; April 1 at 11 to 3 p.m.; April 9 at 1 to 3 p.m.; April 13 and 13 at 7 to 9 p.m. Pleasant Hill at the Co-op Market: Tomorrow at 10 a.m. to 12; April 8 at 7 to 9 p.m.; April 9 at 1 to 3 p.m.

In Alamo, arrangements for registering can be made by calling Mrs. Eugene Lauer. In Danville, call Mrs. L. S. Germaine.

Chorale Will Perform Here Sunday

The Roger Wagner Chorale, hailed by critics, will come to Walnut Creek Sunday under the auspices of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts.

Members will sing at 2:30 p.m. at the Las Lomas High School Auditorium. This is the last concert of the 1960 series.

The chorale is headed by its dynamic French born director, Roger Wagner, who founded the group a little over 12 years ago in Los Angeles.

It was sponsored by the City of Los Angeles Bureau of Music and known as the City of Los Angeles Concert Chorale.

One year later it changed its name to The Roger Wagner Chorale. There are 24 choristers in number, being equally balanced with 12 male and 12 female voices.

The chorale is being augmented by a chamber orchestra, also under the direction of Roger Wagner.

From August through October the chorale made a 10 country tour of South America under the sponsorship of the President's Special International Program for Cultural Presentations, administered by the American National Theatre and Academy.

At present, they are on their fifth tour across the United States and Canada.

To ease the traffic and parking congestion there are additional parking facilities behind the school and in Capwell's parking lot.

South SF Rec. Man is County Parks Director

Duane Mattison, 38, today will assume his duties as Contra Costa County's first director of parks.

He has been superintendent of parks and recreation of the City of South San Francisco.

Born in Lodgepole, Neb., he is a graduate of San Francisco State College.

He has been supervisor of athletics and aquatics for Menlo Park, executive director of the Hilo Boys Club of Hilo, Hawaii.

He is a former director of a boys club mountain camp and coach-teacher at Mission High School, San Francisco.

Sunny Shopper Says . . .

Plan to attend the Broadway Fashion Show on Saturday!

Part of the Broadway Easter Parade that starts tomorrow and will continue through April 9, the fashion extravaganza will be produced at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Models will parade the latest spring fashions on a stage in front of Lucky's. Lovely Carol Bronson, "Miss California of 1959," will be the official hostess for the show. There is no admission charge, come and bring the family too!

Have you visited the VILLAGE SHOE RACK? Fashion conscious women are beating a trail to this attractive store in Petticoat Lane, Walnut Creek. Sunny fell in love with one pair of smart shoes on display.

Called "stitch in time," these beautiful pumps are etched with stitching by Mijji. A tremendous fashion buy at $22.95, the pumps are available in bone, navy and black calf.

Two completely delightful new shops have opened on East Newell. MR. GUY and GLAD RAGS are their names, the former for the men, the latter for women.

Men will find up-to-date spring styling in apparel sold at Mr. Guy and women will delight in the luscious colors and fresh new dresses at Glad Rags.

As an added attraction, Glad Rags has a beauty bar featuring Renne de Paris cosmetics. Free demonstrations of application and beauty counseling is available from a professional beauty consultant.

There's nothing, absolutely nothing, quite so perfect to complete a new spring ensemble as a lovely new Plymouth! This is a fashion car to suit the most discriminating buyer. See them now at the MONUMENT PLYMOUTH CENTER, 2346 Monument Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

Capwell's Will Hold Spring Fashion Show

Capwell's - Walnut Creek will present an open-air, gay prelude to Spring with its annual McCall's Fashion Show tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in the Capwell parking lot.

About 35 youngsters chosen by sewing instructors of local elementary, junior, and senior high schools will herald the Easter season by modeling dresses and sportswear fashions that they have created themselves.

The young ladies chose their creations from McCall patterns and used yardage donated by Capwell's yardage department.

The girls were assisted in their selection of patterns and yardage by McCall's fashion coordinator, Mrs. Theodora Faiola.

Mrs. Faiola will also serve as commentator for the show. There is no admission charge.

Girls participating include Peg Hansen, Holly Abbott, Acalanes High; Nancy Sutherland, Parkmead Upper Grade; Linda Berry, Kay Jacobson, Sharon East, Pleasant Hill High; Andree Bruzzone, San Ramon Valley High.

Lorraine Smith, Carolmae Hechtman, Bernice Zuckerman, Las Lomas High; Joyce Leschinski, Charmian Phipps, Rita Panykovic, Mt. Diablo High; Natalie Hartanov, Pat Flint, Miramonte High; Kathy Doughty, Pleasant Hill Intermediate; Diane Sylar, Oak Grove Intermediate; Julie Weaver, Walnut Creek Elementary; Carol Moffett, Del Valle High; Sally Sulenger, Trudine Mazaika, Nancy Scott, 4-H Club.

TB Group Elects New President

Mrs. George Chapman of Antioch was elected president of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association last week at the annual meeting in the Diablo Country Club.

She succeeds Dr. Charles J. Hart of Walnut Creek.

Other officers elected are Hal Weatherbe, Ph.D., of Alamo, president-elect; Dr. Gordon P. Van Nuys of Walnut Creek, vice president; Bernard Callaghan of Brentwood, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Caulfield of Pleasant Hill, treasurer.

New directors are Jerry Bassett of Pittsburg, Mrs. Hayden Gordon, OTR, of Lafayette; Dr. James Eldred of Pleasant Hill, Dr. Otis B. Cobb of Concord, Ben Hartinger and Frank Salfingere, both of Pleasant Hill.

Adding Three-Thousand Acres Suggested

Mel Nielsen chairman of the Contra Costa County board of supervisors, said last week he has talked with Alameda County Supervisor Chester Stanley the possibility of adding 3000 acres to Contra Costa territory.

The area in question is in Dublin, where the giant Volk-McLain Company $250 million model community is planned to straddle the boundaries of the two counties.

If the land were added to Contra Costa, its boundaries would then go all the way to Highway 50 and would place about half of the proposed city's industrial land, now in Alameda County, in Contra Costa County.

The area proposed for the change is also bounded on the east by Dougherty Road, near Camp Parks and on the west by a ridge line which intersects Highway 50 near Dublin Canyon.

At present, about 2000 acres of the city are in Contra Costa and about 4000 acres in Alameda, with 3000 of the 4000 on the Contra Costa side of the highway.

Columnist, Sue Bronson At Fashion Parade

Paul Speegle, attorney, drama critic, former Air Force officer, and television program director, assistant professor and columnist, will provide the narration during the Broadway Fashion Show tomorrow.

His hostess will be Miss Sue Bronson, who is "Miss California," and who was among the top five contestants in the Miss America finals in Atlantic City.

Speegle is a graduate of Stanford University and Hastings College of Law, but he left the legal profession after three years and became drama critic for the San Francisco Chronicle.

He was commissioned in the U. S. Army Air Corps in 1942, and with the rank of captain was discharged to return to the Chronicle as radio and television editor.

In 1949 he became program manager for KNBC and in 1952 accepted the post of program manager for Radio Free Asia.

With the dissolvement of that organization, Speegle became director of the radio and TV department at San Francisco State College, with an assistant professorship.

He was radio and TV editor of the San Francisco News until July 1956, when he became featured columnist in the San Francisco Call Bulletin.

New Bridge Course Starts At Capwell's-Walnut Creek

Capwell's - Walnut Creek will start a new eight-week series of contract bridge classes under the direction of Ernest H. Noffsinger, nationally known bridge authority.

Noffsinger is bridge editor of the Oakland Tribune and has attained the coveted title of life master of the American Contract Bridge League. He frequently participates in or manages regional and national tournaments.

THE LESSONS will be on Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 to 3 p.m. and will begin on April 6 and continue through May 25.

The overall subject matter will cover beginning bridge and advance into intermediate play towards the conclusion of the current series.

As seating is limited, it is advisable to enroll for the first lesson now in the personnel department on the second floor.

Residents Named Vice Presidents

Two central county men are among the four executives who have been appointed to the rank of vice president of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation, according to D. A. Rhoades, the corporation's president.

Howard C. Holmes, 3365 Springhill Road, Lafayette, has been named vice president for marketing, and Jack W. Watson, 962 Seven Hills Ranch Road, Walnut Creek, was named vice president of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Sales, Inc., the corporation's wholly-owned subsidiary.

Holmes has been with Kaiser Aluminum since 1946. After serving in production capacities at the Trentwood, Washington, and the Newark, Ohio, mills, he served successively as district sales manager at Atlanta and Detroit.

He was assistant general sales manager in charge of field sales offices from 1953 to 1957, when he became general manager of the company's products division.

After joining Kaiser Aluminum as a sales representative in Los Angeles in 1946, Watson served as district sales manager at Seattle, then division sales manager at Cleveland and later Pacific Coast sales manager.

In 1954 he was appointed director of public relations and advertising and in 1957 he became general sales manager.

Highways and Biways..It's Freeway and Food Talk...

By BILL HAYWARD

GETTING USED TO THE FREEWAYS . . . is no cinch . . . especially when you find a FREEWAY NOVICE going south on the northbound lane. Getting the big "LONG HAUL" trucks off of Main Street is indeed a pleasure too . . . In fact the traffic pattern of the entire county will change as folks become acquainted with the handiest roads to take to and from work and to the shops.

The age of Freeways will help Walnut Creek . . . increase the ease of parking and shopping . . . remove some of the big Diesel noise . . . take the exhaust smoke away too . . . It is a real thrill to drive all the way to Orinda without a stop or a sharp turn . . . takes all of 10 minutes . . . and we can all remember the early morning jams thru Lafayette and Rick's corners.

The Early surveying for this Walnut Creek Bypass began over seven years ago . . . quite an engineering accomplishment for sure.

THE SIMON HARDWARE PROJECT . . . on the old Walnut Creek Grammar School property must have been shoved into hi-gear last week as the full earth moving crew was on hand Saturday and Sunday to work straight thru in the leveling work. Most of this earth is being hauled to the seven acre parcel of land belonging to Francis Arthur out on Walker Avenue east of the S. P. tracks . . . this area has been a flood problem for years . . . even with the last rain of any size in February the area became a lake overnight and some of the overflow naturally flowed into Norlyn Drive . . . to whom do these neighbors look for FLOOD CONTROL here? Is this land that is being filled engineered in keeping with the COUNTY FLOOD AUTHORITY MASTER PLAN?

NEWEST NITE SPOT . . . to hit these parts is the old Muscle Building Parlor on Arroyo Way . . . now fresh, new and very unique . . . KELLOGS . . . sort of a family affair . . . everyone works . . . which means terrific service and the red carpet treatment . . . a clever use of full length mirrors on the two far inside walls gives the place a very spacious appearance . . . Good food and the prices are very attractive. I suggest you try lunch soon and you will want to make dinner a must.

SPEAKING OF THE RESTAURANT GANG . . . I spoke with Jay Bedsworth last Sunday about his new RED MILL in Lafayette. Jay has been working like a triple beaver to be ready for business in March . . . his big opening will be sometime in the early part of April . . . the Red Mill is the most . . . just wait 'til you experience the first look at this one.

ABOUT MORTGAGE MONEY THIS WEEK . . . Cal-Vet loans are still the most attractive for the borrower . . . lowest in interest rate and lowest in monthly payments. The big problem is the time it takes to process a loan thru Cal-Vet from start to finish . . . with the exception of a few scattered cases . . . the time to complete a sale is about five months barring other unusual problems . . . according to the grapevine the Oakland office has hundreds of cases piled up ready to close yet they find it difficult to wind up more than about 50 cases per week. In fact 50 would be a busy week.

If you are a Cal-Vet loan applicant . . . I suggest that you personally go to the Oakland Office and build your own fire under the clerk that is handling your escrow . . . This could help some, I am good . . .the Cal-Vet folks do not like to be heckled too much. good . . . the Cal-Vet folks do not like to be heckled too muhc. FHA's take about three months now, believe it or not.

Area Students Achieve Honors at Local College

More than seven per cent of Diablo Valley College's full time day students achieved superior scholastic performance in the 1959 fall semester, earning recognition on the honors list.

All the students maintained grade point average of 2.9 or better while carrying twelve or more units of college work.

Of the 147 total, 71 were women and 76 men students.

By residence, they included the following:

ALAMO: Randall Pettit, Margaret Richards.

Danville: Joyce Darwingson, Thomas H. Hazlett Jr., Martha Ketcham.

Drama Students Will Compete At College Campus

Drama students from six northern California high schools will compete in the third annual High School Drama Festival to be held at St. Mary's College tomorrow.

Participants will present one-act plays in LeFevre Memorial Theater on the campus. The public is invited.

Competing schools include Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek; St. Elizabeth's, Oakland; Marin Catholic, San Rafael; Alhambra, Martinez; St. Mary's, Stockton; and Bishop Armstrong, Sacramento.

Judges drawn from Bay Area little theater groups and the college faculty will award trophies for best production, best actor and best actress.

Sponsored by the St. Mary's Players, the festival attempts to encourage high performance standards among prep drama students.

General chairman is junior premedical student Paul Monahan of San Anselmo, under the direction of Brother V. Matthew, F.S.C., director of dramatics at the college.

Area Leaders Join Nixon Committee

Among local people working on the "Young Californians for Nixon" committee are John J. Bruner, 3289 Helen Lane, Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. George Rowe, 3338 Sweet Drive, Lafayette; Brandt Nicholson, 21 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda; and Loy D. Wright, 297 Lombardy Circle, Walnut Creek.

The committee's function will be to work with local "Nixon in '60" clubs throughout the state.

Supervisors' Report Lists 'Urgent' Programs

An annual report by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was released by Mel F. Nielsen, board chairman.

Nielsen said the 20-page report, covering 1959, has been issued because of the favorable resonse to a similar report published a year ago.

"This year's report," Nielsen said, "discusses the highlights in county government during the past year.

"THE REPORT gives detailed discussion of four urgent county requirements, namely, plans for an expanding highway system within the county, additional building facilities for county departments, protection of county water supplies from the delta, and the need for additional industrial development within the county.

"The report also presents a simplified but comprehensive chart of revenues and expenditures by Contra Costa County and its subsidiary units during the fiscal year 1958-59," Nielsen said.

"County expenditures were $32,567,000, the county special districts controlled by the board of supervisors expended $2,711,000, and local special districts, chiefly school districts, not under the financial jurisdiction of the board of supervisors, expended $55,265,000.

"A total of $90,543,000 was expended through the county treasury last year, a clear indication that the operations of the county, the county special districts, and the local special districts are big business, deserving the fullest interest and understanding of the citizens of the county.

"ANOTHER FEATURE of the report," Nielsen continued, "is a functional diagram of the structure of Contra Costa County government, showing the lines of responsibility and functions of the various county officials, departments, boards, commissions and committees."

Four pages of the report are devoted to the wrk of two large county departments, the Auditor-Controller Department and the Social Service Department.

"The operations of the Auditor-Controller Department," Nielsen said, "are especially interesting because of the manner in which this department has pioneered in the use of data processing equipment to keep pace with the ever-expanding volume of accounting and statistical work.

"And I believe there will be special interest in the report's description of the county's Social Service Department.

"THERE HAS been much public discussion of social welfare in California and this report describes the programs and expenditures for social service work in the county."

The booklet also contains a directory of the locations of the county departments and concludes with a discussion of county recreational resources under study.

Copies of the report may be obtained without cost at county offices in Martinez, Pittsburg, Richmond and at county branch libraries throughout the county.

Numismatists to Hold Meeting Mon.

The next meeting of the Diablo Numismatic Society will be held in Room, 53, Academic Building, Mount Diablo High School, Concord, at 7 p.m. Monday.

Coins will be exhibited and there will be an auction held. Also, refreshmen's will be served.

All collectors and would-be collectors of coins, paper money, medals and tokens are invited to attend.

Today is Last For Dog Tags Without Penalty

Today is the deadline for obtaining the 1960 dog licenses without a $2 penalty fee, according to Arthur Seeley, agricultural commissioner.

House-to-house contact on licensing will continue throughout the year and all dog owners should now be aware that the ordinance is being strictly enforced. he said.

Licenses may be obtained from the county clerk's office in Martinez and in Richmond.

The Animal Control Center, 2777 Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez, and the Pinole Branch of Animal Control, 16949 San Pablo Avenue in Pinole, will provide application envelopes upon request.

Three Day Spring Art Begins Today

A spring art show, displaying works in many media, will be presented by the Valley Art Center on April 1, 2, and 3, in the Highland Building on Boulevard Circle in Walnut Creek.

Painting, jewelry, sculpture, weaving, ceramics, and mosaics will be shown. All will be the works of members of the Valley Art Center Artists Advisory Committee, many of whom are residents of the area.

The exhibition will open with a preview party on Friday evening. From 7:30 to 8:30 will be reserved for the exhibitors, an hour for artist to meet artist. From 8:30 to 11:30 friends of the Valley Art Center are invited to gather for cocktails and a viewing of the show with the opportunity to talk to the artists.

On Saturday, the exhibition will be open from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and on Sunday from noon to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Parker Stack is chairman of the exhibition committee which is producing the Valley Art Center shows this year. Her committee will meet on April 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Stern, 1064 Vis Roble in Lafayette to hear Bohus Benes discuss Driftwood sculpture. Benes, an Orinda resident, is a professor at the University of California.

Adult Center Lists Openings

The Acalanes Adult Center announces openings in a few classes for the spring quarter in the Tuesday evening mutual funds class held at Acalanes, public speaking at Acalanes on Tuesday night, landscape gardening at Las Lomas on Tuesday night and a mosaics class being conducted at Miramonte on Wednesday night by Mrs. Ruth Howard of Walnut Creek.

Anyone interested in these classes or others offered by the Acalanes Adult Center is asked to call YE 5-0170.

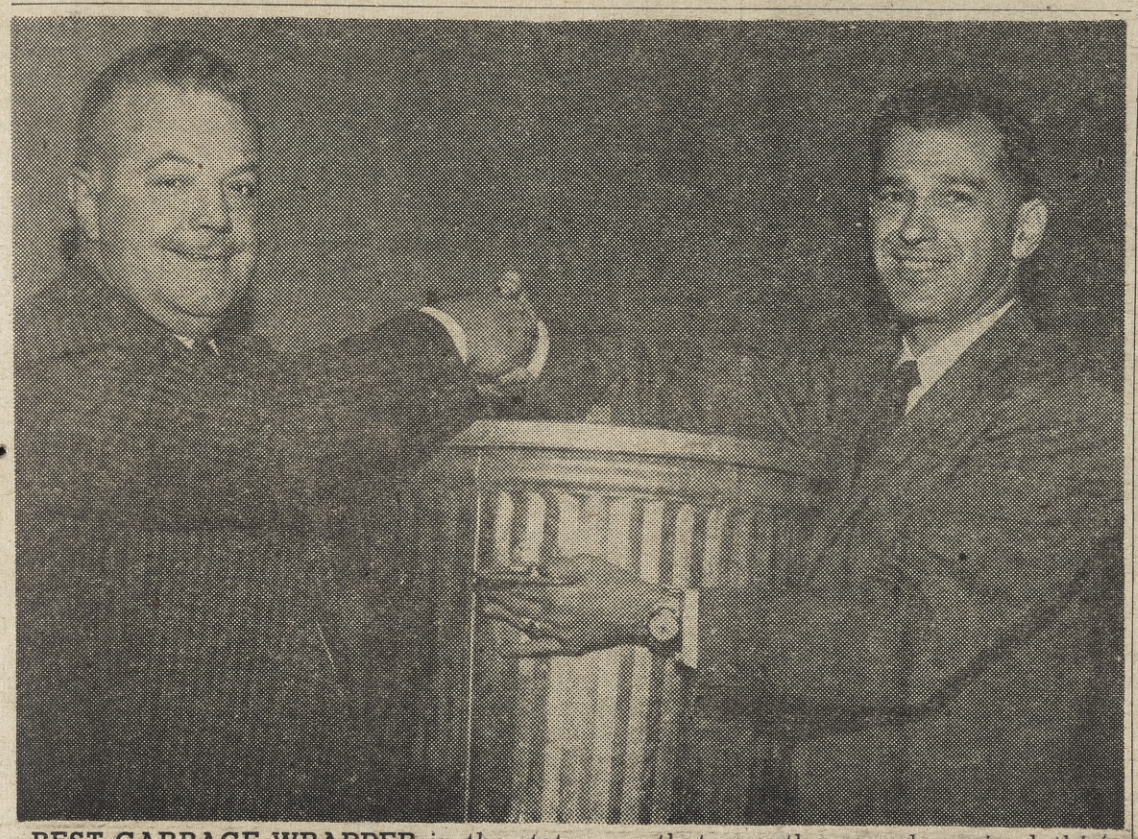
Sun Wins Garbage Award

ORINDA SUN

Commuters Urge Freeway Demolition



BEST GARBAGE WRAPPER in the state . . . that was the award received this week in touching ceremonies by The Sun. Touching each other over the beautiful trophy are Fred Gagliano, left, representing the better garbage companies of California, and Sun Publisher Herman Silverman. The Sun was chosen for this award in competition with the best garbage wrappers, daily and weekly, throughout the state. Said Silverman, upon receiving the award, "We couldn't have done it without the support of our subscribing housewives, and our staff, who put the first layer of garbage on the newsprint to prime it for the home."

$150 Million Cushion Sought by Teachers

The Citizens' Committee for teachers has recommended the sale of school bonds in the amount of $150 million for the purpose of building larger and more luxurious teachers' rooms.

At the same time, the committee recommends raising of the operational tax rate from the present $2 per $100 assessed valuation to $7. The higher rate will be necessary to maintain the proposed teachers' rooms.

The committee is composed of citizens. They include Piggy Hoag, local stock man; Woody Board, chair manufacturer and chairman of the committee; Mrs. I. Q. Seventy, housewife; and many other citizens.

CHAIRMAN BOARD has presented the recommendations to the trustees of the school district. They were "enthusiastic," he said.

The group instituted a study of teachers' rooms after they had served as relief teachers during the annual "faculty luncheon."

An unconfirmed report from a Sun source said Piggy locked himself in the only teacher's room at an unnamed school and refused to come out. Although the fire department sent out its cat - rescuing equipment, Piggy stood firm until the close of school at 2:40 p.m.

IT IS ALLEGED he waited until all children had departed for home, and only then slunk to his car and drove away. No witnesses were available for comment.

Other committee members found it "inconvenient" to be without a lounge facility. Mrs. Seventy set up a camp stool, which she carries in her purse, in the girls' room. "It was unfortunate," she said, "that the girls' room had no lock on the door. Have you shared a bath with 350 girls, aged five to 12?"

Others of the substitute teachers were compelled to stay in the classroom with students. In their opinion this constituted "unwarranted hardship".

AN ARCHITECT from the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation has been suggested to the trustees to design the new rooms. It is expected that the space allotment will be one 24-foot square room per teacher. A desirable feature will be one glass wall of each room which will open into the teachers' patio and pool area. Teachers consulted for their ideas have asked for barbed wire to be installed where the facility touches play areas for children.

The bond money will also provide for simple furnishings. Each room will contain a foam rubber chaise lounge, a diet kitchennette, a dropleaf table that will seat eight, dining chairs, and an electric aspirin dispenser. Teachers will be expected to bring their own aspirin.

The increased taxes will allot funds to each teacher for the purpose of entertaining suitably in the new rooms. Old rooms will be used for storage. Parent-teacher conferences will be held

Quads Are Born At Kaiser Hospital

Identicle quadruplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Golightly of 341 Wauwinet Road, Walnut Creek on April 1 in Kaiser Hospital.

Spokesman for the hospital said the quads were the first born in the area since the hospital's inception. Dr. U. Haul Gently who delivered the quads, said the male babies are doing well. They are not in an incubator, however, as they wouldn't fit.

THE STARTLED parents, who said they were not expecting a baby, have nine other boys at home. Golightly has named the quads, one, two, three and four. One weighed 15 pounds, four ounces.

Two, the tiniest of the four, weighed an even 15 pounds. Three, next to the largest, tipped the scales at 16 pounds and four, largest of the four weighed 16 pounds five ounces.

Physicians were mildly surprised at the size of the babies.

Newsmen and photographers who beseiged the nursery to interview the quads became such a nuisance that the quads are now on display in the Broadway Shopping center.

MR. AND. MRS. Golightly take them in at night, but the public is welcome to visit between sunrise and sunset. Mrs. Golightly said to the press, "Publicity will help, my mouth is so full of diaper pins most of the time I am unable to say very much, but I do appreciate the

Motorists Angered at High Speed Facilities

Angered at a situation where modern, wide highways and high speed transit facilities daily shorten their time for goofing off, the Commuters Association this week announced that renewed efforts will begin soon.

Association President R. (Speedy) Buss said his group for years has been nagging the state to begin demolition operations to eliminate 10 feet from the freeway widths.

He said, "The narrower highways will bring the commuters together again, in closer proximity, and also will probably increase the attendance at our meetings. Our membership is down to seven people, which is a disgrace."

HE ADDED, "We have also threatened to blow up the transit system tracks, if the Transit Authority does not within five years cease all operations, except for those persons who can produce a card proving they do not own a car."

We have the full backing of the Gasoline Service Station Manager's Association and the Auto Repairmen's Association.

"We understand that commuters who are whisked to their jobs and back again without that half hour to full hour of driving in packed traffic are buying fewer tranquilizer pills, drinking less while driving and are home in time for dinner which has led to many an embarassing situation for local bread salesmen, milkmen and peddlers in general. The wives are also behind us in this.

HE CONTINUED, "The good old days when each man, whether he is a 120-pound punk or a 400-pound slob, drove his own 600-horsepower, super-power coupe, using oodles of gasoline, daydreaming for hours and thereby narrowly averting one collision after another, figuring out new ways of out witting the boss, and generally goofing off" can be restored."

"If the state decides the demolition of the hundreds of thousands of miles of new highways is too expensive, an alternative is roping off large sections of the highway, spreading nails and large tacks in the roped-off areas, and posting a highway officer every 30 or 40 feet.

"The highway officers could be armed with billy clubs and hand grenades and should have full authority to use them, but only for driving offences.

"We must realize that commuting has traditionally been relied on to separate the men from the boys, if you will pardon the cliche.

THE MODERN transit train takes all the challenge out of our daily existence. It has been proven that a commuting public, accustomed to a daily grind on the highways make the best combat troops in wartime."

When our program is finally accepted, and well on the way to realization, we will then seek restoration of the freeway crossroads. This should make our drivers more alert, and prevent the tendency to doze off at 80 miles per hour," Buss said.

It's April Fool, And Here Is A Joke for You!

APRIL FOOL!

Really, it's all a gag!

If you are not wide awake this morning, perhaps this issue of The Sun won't look much different than it usually does. (We HOPE it looks different to you!)

But in the best traditions of the ages, The Sun has gone off the deep end for the first day in April, and come up with a surprising look at our communities and our traditions and agencies which serve us.

So don't be suprised if you find your favorite group represented in this special section of The Sun. But perhaps it won't be just exactly the way you pictured it.

Remember, it's all in fun, and next week we can settle down to the humdrum business of presenting everything just the way it is.

Or can we?

Diligence of Our Realtors Keeps Homes Unoccupied

Proud of its record of fewer home sales than any other area is the Contra Costa Real Estate of equal size in the United States Board.

"The secret of our success is our 'Exclusive Listing Service,' copies of which are burned at the very moment they are mimeographed," says Wayne Bailey, board executive manager.

"Thanks to the efficiency of our organization, it is almost impossible to find out which homes are for sale, or to let people know you want to sell your home," Bailey added, proudly.

AS A RESULT, most of the people in this area live in shacks, while the fine homes are either unoccupied or used for administrative offices, he continued.

"The steady improvement of the professional level of our members is due to several courses which most of them take. Considered the most important is the course on how to keep a secret.

"Another is how to point out all the faults of a home, at the same time trying to convince a potential buyer that by renting he can avoid a lot of headaches."

"Sometimes it is difficult to convince a customer, and he buys a home in spite of all our pleading. But these cases are rare, and we don't like to talk about them," Bailey said.

BAILEY HIMSELF lives in a 24-foot trailer, and it has proved to be quite roomy for himself, his wife, and 14 children.

"Our dining room is a little small, of course, but we may build a new wing one of these days," he said.

Although information on homes available is almost impossible to get, many residents have solved this problem by joinnig the real estate board.

As a member, he is entitled to a peek each week at a special listing of available homes. As a result, brokers and salesmen themselves live in the best homes purchased at great bargains due to the desperate situation of the sellers.

TO REVEAL any listing to an outsider may be punished with expulsion from the board and exile to a shack.

A requirement of continued membership is certified proof that the salesman or broker has at least once a week talked a potential home buyer into switching to a trailer, rental unit or extra-long station wagon.

"It's a thankless job, keeping people from buying homes. But there's the satisfaction of serving," Bailey concluded.

Switchblade Is Required Course

School District trustees, as part of their new program to emphasize "the basics" in curriculum, have added a course on "How to Use a Switchblade Knife" to the others, such as arithmetic, readnig and spelling.

A special consultant named "Mac" has been hired by the district, and he will include a special class in how to wield a penknife for girls under the age of nine.

Switchblade knives will be issued before each class, and an effort will be made to collect them afterwards.

A CONCURRENT class in first aid will be held in an adjacent room.

The final examination will be at the local slaughterhouse.

"Mac" will begin his course with instruction on how to avoid pushing the button accidentally when the knife is concealed in the pocket.

In the psychological phase of the course, "Mac" will indoctrinate the students in how to be a bully, and how to make frail kids mad enough to fight, providing an excuse for clobbering them.

THE COURSE will include the American system of fair play, and how to slip up behind your opponent.

"Mac" said, "The only problem with the knives in the past was that they were forbidden, and this made them more attractive to the boys.

"Now, with a switchblade knife in every desk, and a few new rules allowing their use on students and teachers, a new era in school discipline should begin."

He also predicts the new acceptance of the knives will lead to a decline in the employment of bicycle chains and tire irons, during the physical education and recreation classes.

Also, at their own request teachers will be offered a special night course in how to defend against a switchblade attack, and to successfully plead for mercy.

'Drive Out Industry!' Is Chamber's Slogan

An all-out campaign to drive out local industry was announced this week by the Chamber of Commerce.

Joe Blink, Chamber manager, said a citizens committee has been organized. Delegations will be assigned specific areas, and given placards with such messages as "Industry, go home!," and "Down with the local sweat shops!"

Another motto will be "Keep our town green — and empty!"

BLINK, IN A special conference, said the local "crash program" was decided upon as a result of a recent survey, sponsored by the Chamber.

The survey indicated that the area is the most prosperous in its history, and as residents have shown a disgusting tendency towards enjoying the "good" life, enriching their spare hours with art studies, concert, plays and other such activities.

"We want to bring our town back to the good old days when nobody could get a job. The town's population each year was decreasing due to the general migration to the midwest, and the individual's character was developed by the basic American 'Don't give a Damn' philosophy," Blink continued.

In addition to the placards, the Chamber is also issuing stink bombs, .45 automatics, a special handbook on how to sabatoge industry, which was used by the American spies during World War II.

HE SAID, "IF THE Chamber had been active five years ago, these industries, with the resulting prosperity and optimism would never have been allowed to slip in.

"And since then, they have had the nerve to advertise for local talent, diverting our young people from the pool halls and bars, which have traditionally been the city's basic source of income derived from under-the-counter protection and a flourishing narcotics trade.

"The citizens committee is composed of some of the town's strongest pillars, including Harmon Dusroff, the city hall janitor, Willie Maraheroin, the richest peddler in the school district, and Mrs. Tom Foolery, owner of the city's oldest house for wayward and money-hungry girls.

Blink added, "It is the hope of the Chamber that the general economic pace can be slowed to the point that there will be no need for any organizations such as the Coyotes, Antelopes or 60-70's.

"Only one job will remain — mine!

"We hope we will have the full cooperation of the residents who are moving out, and those dumb enough to make our town their permanent home. They can help most by boarding up their windows, and paying not attention to civil affairs.

"If our campaign is successful, our town may be completely eliminated from all auto road maps and travel guides.

"No one will even know we exist," Blink said, proudly.

Slaughter of Bugs Must Stop! It's Unpatriotic!

The dreadful slaughter in our local gardens and hothouses must be stopped and quickly, says the Contra Costa section of the Home and Garden Wreckers.

Slug Cutworm, section chairman, said, "For years the most cold-blooded and unnecessary loss of insect life has been taking place, especially in the small gardens about the suburban homes.

He said, "This mania for raising delicate plants, pleasing only to the eye and nose, has gone beyond all reasonable bounds and may be considered unpatriotic. As a national policy, it is downright dangerous."

WHAT COULD an Azalea or a petunia do in the time of national emergency? he asked.

Cutworm referred to a new plan by which America can have the last laugh on the Communists, even after every human being in the world is wiped out by atomic war.

He said, "For many millions of years, American bugs, insects and weeds were becoming stronger and stronger, and well able to defend against post-atomic invasion by foreign bugs, insects and weeds.

But that position of strength has been noticeable weakened by suburban homeowners, their vicious weed killers and bug sprays.

"NOW, THE typical decadent suburban housewife seems determined to wipe out our strong and virile weeds and the many active insects which thrive on the weaker plants.

"Remember, the Russians are at this very moment developing newer and stronger breeds of insects, plants and germs, in the event that all mankind is destroyed.

Don't Wait, Call!

Parents, are you tired of paying exhorbitant baby-sitting fees?

Do you have a couple of unmanageable teen-agers around the house, just full of energy and destructive talent?

Then join the campaign! Get up in arms! Campaign for after-school dances at all our high schools.

After all, why should you be faced with the expense of feeding a horde of ravenous teens?

WHY SHOULD you pay the cleaning bills when your draperies and floors get marred? Let the local school district take over your baby-sitting chores each Friday night.

Consider the fact that the school district now provides baby-sitting service every day of the week and ask yourself the logical question of why it shouldn't be continued into the evening hours.

Certainly there will be complaints from the school district that the teachers have enough of a burden now and shouldn't be saddled with the extra work, but remember, that teacher only earns about $7000 a year and your salary is at least double that.

Does it make sense that a highly paid member of society should do menial tasks, like caring for the kids on off-hours, when a lower paid, less talented individual can be found to do it?

CERTAINLY NOT! And carried to its logical conclusion, these after-school dances can be expanded to take in a couple of more nights each week. Think of the additional freedom this will give you around the house.

Besides, there is the clinching argument that the schools are prepared to cope with any disciplinary problems that might arise—much more prepared than a couple of inadequate parents.

The Sun has been campaigning for this for years, and it is about time that residents awaken to the fact that this is a good deal for them. Think about it, then act.

Threaten your district superintendent tomorrow. Place phone calls to his home at 3 a.m. Make life miserable for him, and he'll come around to your way of thinking soon enough.

After all, you're only young once you know, and the freedom you'll gain will make life much more worthwhile.

Vice, Gambling Raids Must Go!

It's about time this crackdown on gambling and vice came to a screeching halt.

Since a few discreet arrests have been made—and generally these arrests have escaped the notice of residents of the county—business and profit have gone down the drain.

There was a time in this county when a good payoff was an every day affair. But since the sheriff has cracked down, you have to walk blocks just to find a multiple play pinball. Time was you could eat your lunch off of 'em.

Furthermore, graft and corruption have hit a new low. This, in turn, is tying up money and creating a tight money situation that is threatening to put the skids to the county economy.

We're all for a good showing . . . prearranged arrests, raids on recalcitrant merchants who won't pay protection, and all the other standard practices.

But to clamp down on good, hard-working confidence men and second story men is too much.

If this keeps up, the county is going to have to get another superior court judge—one who can choose a list and pick a grand jury that won't put up with this nonsense.

We want action, or we'll campaign for recall and get a sheriff who knows how to use his mileage fees!

(Unanimous)

We've been waiting for years to give you the low-down on the newspaper business!

You think it's all glamour and roses. Well, it isn't.

You have to travel all over the county drinking other people's lousy drinks, eating their tough old steaks, and being invited into their lousy 50 foot by 80 foot living rooms full of crummy old models.

YOU GET SENT free samples of 9x12 carpets that you can't use, and there's always some bum trying to get you off his back by offering you a lousy Cadillac when he knows darn well you prefer a Mercedes-Benz.

Your wife (or husband) gets to hate you because you're never home at night, and what's more, you have a valid excuse.

The hours are terrible, and naturally the boss doesn't want to pay you because he knows you are knocking down his advertisers as much as the traffic will bear.

Oh yes, there is one editorial staff, complete, looking for employment in the glamourous newspaper field. Write us in care of the local saloon.

Boycott Threat Hits WC Bypass; Commuters Angry

Despite repeated urgings by local residents, officials and commuters groups that the opening of the Walnut Creek bypass be delayed as long as possible, or even postponed indefinitely, the project was completed recently.

Chamber of Commerce manager Joe Orlafwalph told The Sun, "This is a blow to our plans. The Harney Company promised that the freeway opening would be at least two or three years off.

"And we obtained their promise that under no circumstances would it be opened before the Christmas holiday rush."

HE CONTINUED, "However, we're not going to take this sitting down.

"The Chamber is distributing petitions requesting the state to allow use of the freeway only on Sundays and during off hours.

"Peak hour traffic should be directed to the old roads, since engineers have discovered that the old roads, without the daily massage of thousands of tires, will crumble and break up.

"And then we would be without any local traffic system. This would be catastrophic!"

"IF OUR petitions fail, we are planning to organize a general boycott of the new freeway by all commuters. The commuting groups have expressed a general agreement to such a move, if other measures fail."

Orlafwalph said he has been asked what would be done to put the freeway to some beneficial use.

"We could organize drag strip racing, for the youth recreational program," he said.

"Also the local high school driver training programs could be conducted on the empty freeway, without danger to unsuspecting motorists on our normally safe local roads.

"THERE'S A nice view from the top of the interchange, and we could perhaps have conducted tours of the interchange, charging admission, benefitting the Chamber kitty.

"And there's hardly any place you can go bicycling in the area. The four miles of new concrete would be just fine for local bicycle clubs.

"Actually there are many civic and we hated to do it, but we Sluggy, the office snail, slid across the desk and stopped in the middle of the clean copy paper. Sleepily he lifted his pudgy head, and a tiny gleam could be detected in his beige eyes.

"What's the matter, Slug?" I asked, alarmed. Our pet was displaying unusual animation for this office. Although he moves slowly, we keep him around because he's the mayor of the community. And you never can tell when you'll need the mayor's viewpoint.

"Boss, why don't you write something about us, for a change?"

"About you, Slug? What's the trouble, wife unhappy?"

Slug, being a family man, has the usual number of problems.

"NO," HE replied. "It's the kids. All I ever hear is how they don't have anything to do. Now they're pushing for a community center."

"Gee, I don't know. Seems to me they have plenty to do. There's the Snail Scouts, the Second Tuesday Sports Club, the Young Snails' Association. Not to mention music lessons, Synchronized Creeping lessons, and the class in how to chew faster and more efficiently. I'm not sure they need a center. You must remember, we don't have one for the human children yet."

Sluggy fixed me with a moist eye.

"Boss, that's the trouble with the world—everybody put his own interests first. Tell me this—have you ever given one serious thought to the future of snails?"

He had me there. I hung my head.

"Now don't fall apart," he said magnanimously. "It's not too late. All you have to do is give the public the facts."

SO HERE they are.

Our snail population is pretty large, and still growing. As a public service paper, we must consider the needs of all our local groups. What with the way home construction has taken over our semi-rural area, snails are having a hard time. We've taken away their natural habitat, the weeds on which they thrived, and given them instead camellias, geraniums and other rich, but indigestible foods.

We have torn away nature to put in concrete foundations, patios and pools. The poor snails have to make the best of it in our flower beds.

The solution is simple. By forming a citizens' committee for the protection of snails, we could have a Snail Reservation set up. Possibly it could be incorporated into the beautification plans. We could have a small building designed by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation.

THINK OF IT! Two or three acres landscaped with California natives: oak trees, bays, buckeyes—star thistle, poison oak. Naturally, a few unnecessary buildings would have to be torn down—the Sun office, for one.

Slug and I have been talking this over—just off the tops of our heads, of course—and he'd be willing to act as chairman. He asked me to take the chairman's job, but I'm pretty busy with the Gopher Group. Anyhow, most people regard me as all looks and no brains.

And they may be right—

What do you think?

Letters to The Editor

PINBALLS

Dear Editor,

When your paper first began those nasty articles against us pinball operators and our deluxe, income guaranteed multiple-play machines, we were worried.

People won't like us anymore, we feared.

We began a cutback in manufacture, and informed our patrons that they would have to begin relying more on making a fast buck by overpricing drinks, etc.

BUT WE reckoned without your wonderful subscribers, bless 'em.

At first, hundreds of Sun subscribers stormed into many of the local dives and pool rooms, determined to stamp out our machines.

Being fair minded, they watched long enough to make sure an illegal operation was involved, of course.

Then one of your subscribers, who had $3.75 in his pocket and planned to renew his subscription as it was running out, said, "Gee, if I win on this machine, I could buy TWO Sun subscriptions!"

"WELL, MR. Editor, he won the cost of two subscriptions, paid him off.

"But then he remembered that there are FOUR Sun subscription papers, so he took the plunge again.

"Well, it wasn't long before all the Sun subscribers were trying our multiple play pinball machines. They wanted more Sun subscriptions, too!

"As you know, you can easily lose your shirt on our multiple play machines, and sadly, that's just what happened to your subscribers.

"HOWEVER, they are hooked now, Mr. Editor. You may have noticed that your circulation has fallen off, lately. Well business is picking up for us, thanks to your articles.

"Also, I must admit our victims are among the best informed on local news I have ever seen. That is, until their subscriptions run out."

Mrs. Anaconda Rattler Enjoys Common Hobby

Snakes, anyone? Mrs. Anaconda Rattler of Snaky Lane, Walnut Creek, has a hobby sure to intrigue the ladies in the East Bay.

Mrs. Rattler is completely devoted to snakes. Not only does she maintain a snakery open to the public at 19,590,42 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, where rare snakes from every country may be viewed, but she really "cares" for these snakes.

Cooking for snakes presents a problem, for it means maintaining a force of rodent hunters. Mrs. Rattler copes with the problem through educated buying and a force of trained cats who bring home alive and unscathed, a variety of squirming snake palate tickling vermin.

HER BIGGEST problem, she said, "Is keeping my snakes warm on frosty nights. They are used to warmer climates, with the exception of native snakes. I like to knit 'little things' and knitting for snakes is my most cherished pastime.

Sometimes I get confused as to length of a snake sweater, especially after watering my garden. I knit and knit and knit, and suddenly realize I made it too long."

"Rollo, the repulsive reptile is my favorite," Mrs. Rattler stated. "His replsive marble eyes just send shivers up and down my spine, the kind that make you really want to do something for the creature."

MRS. RATTLER urges all area women to visit her snakery.

"Strange and exotic ideas new ideas occur to women as they stand and gaze at the entwining masses.

For example, Mrs. Gutso prepared tinted spaghetti for her family, a younger friend of mine now wears exclusive leotards fashioned from fabric she designed after watching my pets."

Mrs. Rattler gazed fondly into the eyes of her pet moccasin as she gently stroked his back. "You know," she remarked, "There is something about his expression that reminds me of my first true love."

"Snakes need lots of love, she stated, "so did my husband, the snake."

GENTLY replacing the moccasin in the snake pit, Mrs. Rattler reached for a little garter snake. "This one," she said, "is my constant companion. He has several sweaters in varying shades to match his complexion.

"However, he sleeps nude at night, cuddled close to me. No one who has not slept with a snake can imagine what a comfort this one is to me."

Whereupon Mrs. Rattler closed the snakery for the day and retired to her attractive home where snakes are always welcome.

Tea Honors Debutante

An afternoon tea was given Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Ewe of Orinda in honor of their daughter Pat, who will make seen of my daughter, the bether debut in the fall.

Pouring from martinin shakers at the four counters were the Mesdames R. Q. Nuttingham, D. R. Polliard, W. R. Snodfish and E. N. Crabby.

The long room, ressembling a bar was tastefully decorated with fresh weeds and nasturtiums. Dangling from the ceiling to add glitter to the scene were used beer cans and empty gin bottles.

For her daughter's tea, Mrs. Ewe chose a gown of sheer nylon. She didn't wear it.

Pat was dressed in stunning blue jeans, appliqued with patches. Her corsage of ragweed was studded with bottle tops.

The young guests toasted the debutante between each dance. The older folk drank. Unfortunately the party came to a close with the arrival of Sheriff's deputies.

Wedding Bells Ring Again For Thrisewed Waves

Goldenrod and marsh grass decorated the living room of the hut of Mr. and Mrs. Rolling C. Waves last Saturday when their daughter, Thrisewed, became the bride of Toby Eagermale.

Given in marriage by her former husband, Jake Tiredmale, the bride wore a knee length burlap gown fashioned with a decolette neckline trimmed with safety pins.

Her veil of cheesecloth was attached to a tiny crown of elastic, studded with sequins. She wore matching accessories, and carried a bouquet of cauliflower with cascading carrots.

Fawmore N. Morality, J. P., officiated at the home wedding.

The bridal attendants were the bride's twin sisters, Crest and Spray Waves. Their floor-length gowns of sailcloth were trimmed at the hemline with simulated mildem. Long stemmed mustard mixed with lupine bound with scotch thistle fashioned their bouquets.

Larry Rapidola served as the groom's best man, and the ushers were the bride's sons by her former marriage.

After a brief honeymoon in Pittsburgh the pair will be at home in a tiny hovel near Fisherman's Wharf.

Outstanding Delinquents Model at Fashion Show

By HAZEL HATCHET

The Spring Fashion Show is the big news from Juvenile Hall. Mrs. Slaughter is general chairman, and models have been selected on the basis of outstanding delinquency.

Most of the models come from Row H and include Gertie Grimm, the bomb-setter, you know; Hazel Hatchet, who needs no introduction; and Madcap Marie Mason, the arsonist.

Fashions will be supplied by U. Sagnin's and will follow the theme "All Through the Jail."

A MORNING costume, the dashing muu-muu in white-and-blue ticking, will be shown in a typical setting; models at breakfast in the charming Ptomaine Room. Hair styles for the morning hours will be informal. A short straw-like fuzz is In this year; also popular are pin-curls, and the new extra-large rag curlers will be worn, but only at breakfast.

Hairnets are OUT, especially for those working in the kitchen. Diners LIKE their food with long curly strands. Variety, you know.

Informal attire for morning work hours will feature the ever-popular grey shirts and faded jeans—so flattering to the youthful figure. Sagnin's collects these all through the year especially for us. We are properly grateful.

THIS SHOWING will be held in the laundry room. Special seats on the floor will be marked off with soap boxes for the audience.

Special feature will be lunch. Yes, lunch, catered by the Orinda Swills. Hors d'oeuvres will be darling peanut-butter crackers, and bread crumbs daintly sprinkled with wheat germ. Main dish planned is Baked Iguana! Isn't this exciting? Dessert is simplicity itself—oatmeal cookies. A big bottle of pure, aged creek water will be provided free at each table.

DRESSING FOR DINNER is mandatory at the hall, so dinner costumes will be much in demand. Sagnin's has imported the very finest sackcloth which has been cleverly sewn into enchanting peg-bottomed semi-formal dresses. By pulling a drawstring at the top and attaching suitable concrete weights, the dress is converted into a deep-sea suit for those who love the water. We'll all want plenty of these versatile dresses.

Our girls will be also seen preparing for bed, their well-scrubbed pink complexions glowing. Then the blue-and-white muu-muus will assume their second identity: nighties! The usefulness of the muu-muu is apparent immediately—the girls can all sleep later.

The public is invited, according to chairman Slaughter, and admission is four hubcaps in good condition. See you there!

WINNING twosome for the spring golfer: sport shirt of lustrous cotton is absorbent and comfortable; the coordinated cardigan, of all-cotton knit has unique tee-holder pocket, comes with set of four gold tees. Both garments by Arrow.

She Finds Enchantment Through Sordid Deeds

By UNO FOOLZETTE

Meet Mrs. Winthrop Bryson Fortesque Peskestey of 0000 Surburbia Lane, Phlorindalawa.

This grotesque lady, known for her lethargy, devotes her energies exclusively to community work. "My family often suffers," she remarked, "but I believe outside activities should come first, after all, we have schools, juvenile counselors and neighbors to cope with such minor details as raising kids."

Marriage was not happy for Mrs. Peskestey, but with her usual nauseous ability, she managed to overcome the disasterous sentencing of her husband to exclusive San Quentin, to fullfill her life with philanthropic work.

A LEADING FORCE of Alcoholics Unanimous, she has encouraged many young mothers and disturbed husbands to seek consolation through the enchantment of the amber glow of certain fluids.

"The work is not easy," she said, "my elbow often aches, but when I truly realize what I am doing for these people, I find the strength to bend it again."

A staunch supporter of the Society Formulating Female Forces, Stupia Peskestey has been instrumental in cultivating the more ignorant politicians to run for office in Phlorindalawa.

Her latest achievement was to rally voter support for the election of Herman Cheapskate to the office of County Supervisor.

COMMENTING ON this accomplishment, Mrs. Peskestey remarked, "We (the county women) want to see a man in office who thinks more of his golf and bourbon than he does of tax money spent for classrooms and teachers."

Family life is no problem for this weird creature, it simply doesn't exist. Her two eldest sons are with the C.Y.A. and her little girl is sojourning at juvenile hall.

Born and raised in the rigorous climate of Maine, educated in Chicago's Loop, Stupia did not bring her talents to California until 1951.

"California is wonderful," she said, "The milder climate is good for my lethargy and with such a growing population the horizon for my particular abilities are unlimited."

"Civic problems are unlimited," she continued. "I hope to dissuade the engineers from further evaluation of the water in the north east part of our community, for I delight in its salty rancid taste."

IN FURTHER comments on civic problems, Mrs. Peskestey stated that rapid transit was strictly for the birds, design projects were a waste of time and money, and anyone that attempts to unify a school district set-up should join her favorite philanthropy.

Twice honored with arrests for sending obscene literature through the mail, Mrs. Peskestey believes the modern child is sheltered beyond reason. She also said, "The cultural growth of this community is despicable. Modern are can be seen on any alley wall, why encourage it community wide?"

Recently a local publisher, known for "The Moon" newspapers, honored Mrs. Peskestey as "The Moon Woman of The Year."

ACCEPTING THE honor as her just due, Mrs. Peskestey commented, "I am happy to accept this plaque, for I have worked conscientiously over a number of years to earn it. The bribes, club memberships and confidences published have gladdened my heart. I will continue to lie to the press and encourage membership in my favorite philanthropy as long as I have a wheezy breath left in my anatomy."

In concluding the interview, the outstanding feature lady said, "I wish to express thanks

Revealed earlier this month when the bride elect passed the traditional box of gumdrops to her fraternity brothers at Stanford, the engagement came as a big surprise to Miss Marrymore's recent dates.

Merry will be a non graduating student in June, for she majored in icthyology but couldn't stand the smell of fish. Her affiliatoins included membership in Local 242, Fisherman's Union, Beta Sigma Phi and the Stanford Mother's Club.

Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Love Teentime of Arkansas, who have ranching interests in Red Hill County.

No date has been set for the wedding, but friends anticipate it will be soon.

Bulgy Models Make Big Hit

Gaily decorated grabage cans lined the spacious drive to the Penny Ranch, scene of last weeks styl-o-rama, sponsored by the Pygmy Unit to aid Persian Maternity Hospital now under construction.

Although sponsored by the Pygmy Unit, all units of the hospital took part in arranging the styl-o-rama. They are as follows: Squirrels, decorations; Rabbits, publicity; Fieldmice, refreshments; Moose, hostesses and Zebras, models.

Mrs. Franklin Slimstripe, model chairman, arranged for fabulous imported fashions. She expressed some concern over the models inability to lose weight prior to the show, but as everyone who attended the gala affair will remember, the models were lovely in a bulgy sort of way.

Fashion Extravaganza At Kennelwood Was Success

Suave, sophisticated, yet truly feminine, members of the Poodle Juniors presented a fashion extravaganza at the Kennelwood Country Club yesterday.

Delighted with the success of the show, Miss Zsa Zsa, publicity chairman, said all proceeds would be used to further the "clear-out-the-cats" campaign, the Poodle Juniors current community project.

Fashions were by La Furre, exclusive Paris designer and loaned to the Poodle Juniors for the event by I. Wagins. Jewelry and accessories were loaned by the Clip Shoppe.

Most popular outfit shown, modeled by Miss Tootsie, was a Poodle Juniors presented a fashion extravaganza at the clear plastic rain costume. Fashioned of super soft plastic, mond collar, lovely fur, and fashionable clip.

The carefully tailored cut of the rain outfit permitted snug fitting right to the top of the dainty boots, fashioned of matching material.

On her head, this attractive model wore a rain cap that revealed her shapely head, yet prevented the tiniest drop of moisture to mar her grooming.

The next big event for the Poodle Juniors will be a luncheon to benefit the group's philanthropy, the care and preservation of area trees.

The sports news this week was on the startling side to say the least, as the Acalanes School District sent out press releases that all but topped the press.

The district office released statements that promised big changes on all of the four prep campuses.

Heading the list was an announcement that a new gym would be constructed on the Acalanes campus starting April 1. It was revealed that plans had been sent to the State Department last week and that they were returned approved and without any changes early this week.

THE GYM WILL be of modern circular design and will be able to be converted into an auditorium, a little theatre, an ice rink, a swim pool, a basketball court or a baseball field simply by means of pressing a button on a super magnetic panel board.

The seating capacity will be 5000 and air conditioning will maintain an eternal springtime, with sun lamps providing top lighting and sun tanning at the same time.

An underground garage beneath the huge structure will provide parking space for 2000 cars.

Miramonte High is getting an 18-hole golf course along with a modern, up to date club house. The building will be of rock with rocks collected from every state in the union, as well as from every country outside the United States. It will have wall-to-wall carpeting.

THE COURSE itself is being laid out by the outstanding designers and the latest word is that Bing Crosby will transfer his tournament there next year.

Las Lomas High is getting a new baseball field as uranium has been found on the old one. The ore has been assayed at $12,000 a hundred pounds. Mining equipment has already been moved in and blasting will get underway in the very near future.

Forty-seven houses are being condemned in the Walnut Creek area just north of the high school, and the new field will be designed along the lines of the Giants' Candlestick Cove, although it has been announced that such items as waterproofing, painting, lockers and so forth will be included in the original bid. A huge glass dome with sliding windows will weatherproof the area in case of rain.

DEL VALLE HIGH is to have a cyclotron built on its campus. It will run back into the hillside 480 feet and will have 78 full time employees. It is estimated that students with intensive study over a seven-year period can get their doctor's degree. This will mean an 18-hour school day and spending two years underground.

Early tests indicatae that they will look and think like moles for six months following completion of the course, but according to Dr. Roger S. Smyth they will return to a normal human status in from six to eight months. It has not as yet been determined as to whether this is good or bad.

The Pleasant Hill, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Miramonte grammar school districts have announced that they are giving full athletic scholarships which will include board, room, $50 spending money and a full set of examination answers.

THE WHOLE program will find each school competing on a full season basis in boxing, wrestling, tennis, golf, tackle football, track, baseball, hopscotch and marbles.

Pleasant Hill High School has changed its program so that all athletic contests will be held in the morning so that classes won't interfere with the program. The athletic department announced, "It's a universal trend and we want to be in on the ground floor."

In other startling but most friendly gestures, Rams Coach George Galli announced that he was sending all of his experienced wrestlers to College Park High next year so as to get them off to a good start.

World Series To Be In Lafayette

The betting in Las Vegas last week was 100-1 that the World Series this year would be played between the Washington Senators and the San Francisco Giants.

Giant manager Bill Rigney of Walnut Creek and Senator manager Cookie Lavayetto of Orinda earlier stated that they would compromise as to location of the play off and make it at the Acalanes High School Field located in Lafayette—a halfway point.

New bleachers are in the drawing board as well as additional space for the parking area. The plans call for a full seven-game series with three to be played under the lights of the Little League field.

THE EVENT is expected to bring thousands of sports fans to the local area for the event. A nine-foot trophy as well as the world series cut of $180,000 will go to the winners. The losers will get a six-foot cup and $100,000.

Tax experts figure that if the clubs each add $50,000 to what they receive that they will be able to pay the taxes due.

Rigney stated, "It will be much easier than playing at Candlestick Park as it won't be so far to travel."

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors in each of the three towns voted to put $25,000 apiece into the promotion fund while a group of Pleasant Hill people put a like amount, as they wanted to do their share for an event that would bring so much favorable publicity to the area.

Civic Council Will Strive for Slums

More than 500 angry citizens stormed the Pleasant Hill Civic Council last night, to demand the Council take immediate action to create slums.

"Other cities have slums, why can't we?" was the question most frequently hurled at the board of directors. One young housewife remarked, "Other children have the opportunity to play in trash filled gutters, why can't mine?"

JIM JANRAHAN, of 44444 Monument Row, called for immediate discontinuance of garbage collection. "One of my fondest memories," he said, "is recalling the taste thrill that comes from sampling garbage left rotting in backyards."

A committee of three was immediately appointed to study the slum situation. James Welljim, president, stated that the committee would study other slum areas to determine the most desirable. On completion of the study, contacts will be made to encourage slum development in Pleasant Hill.

In other civic council action, the board voted to request the Pleasant Hill Recreation and Park District to expand the budget which would enable residents to pay the district a higher tax. The motion was made and passed unanimously.

COUNCIL representatives were appointed to work with the Chamber of Commerce to discourage growth of industry and population. The chamber is publishing a comprehensive map of the area which will describe in detail how frequently the better homes and businesses are flooded out.

The map will also include diagrams of non-through traffic, traffic hazards, areas with no zoning or too strict zoning.

Schools Withdraw From DVAL

It was announced last Wednesday by Commisserie Hal Buffa of the DVAL that all of the schools in the circuit were withdrawing and each school was setting up a league that would be the most unique arrangement in the country, in that each league would be composed of just one school.

In that way each school would be a champion in every sport every year. The plan as presented would have many advantages. For one, it would cut down travel time and for another, twice as many could take part in each school.

It will also be a break for the officials as they will have only one school to satisfy.

Cast Inhibitions Aside Convert Playroom Today

With a little imagination and a few hours of leisure, you can turn your playroom into a beautiful and functional garage. Just one warning: You'll have to let yourself go completely. No inhibitions.

First take a "Before" picture, and then move the playroom furniture into the living room. If you haven't space for all of it, throw the rest out. For a small fee the garbage men will haul it away.

Now get a group of small neighborhood boys and equip them with hammers, chisels and the like. In almost no time they will have the walls and ceiling neatly piled in the middle of the floor. (If you're short of tools, don't worry. Most small boys can do this work with their bare hands.)

THIS SHREDDED plaster and sheetrock make a wonderful chemical agent for heavy soils. The little boys will have a fun time scattering it over your lawns and flower beds. All that's left for you to do is to dig it in. Think of it! Your lawn will be able to breathe again.

Now that the walls are down, sand the remaining framework and ceiling beams with No. 000 sandpaper. Be sure to use the correct number. Coarse sandpaper leaves unsightly grooves in the wood.

Finish the wood with a wax-base stain. Apply it to a small section at a time and be careful to wipe off the excess. Plug any nail holes with plastic wood for a finished job.

IT'S NO WORK at all to pry up a hardwood floor and sub-floor. When this has been done, make forms for a concrete slab, place a layer of chicken wire, order the number of yards of concrete you need and pour it into the forms. Smooth over the top and you're through.

Your new concrete slab may "weep", but don't worry about it. You've got enough problems.

When the floor has dried, wet it down and let it dry again. Do this for three days. I forget why, but it's important.

NOW MOVE your car into its new home, take the "After" picture, and send it to one of the home magazines.

Soon the kids will ask you to park in the driveway so they can play ping pong. Your wife will simply have to get the television out of the living room, so keep one corner clear for it. Get all the playroom furniture and make it into orange crates. An orange crate is a very useful thing.

Marijuana Is Lovely

An attractive new pamphlet, published by the California Marijuana Association, tells concisely how best to grow the plant to beautify your home and garden.

Marijuana is ideally suited for use in window boxes, since it grows from 10 to 20 feet high and bears many spikey leaves covered with yellow and green flowers. Such a refreshing change from geraniums.

OF THE scientific classification Cannabis sativa in the family Cannabinacae, or cannibal plant, marijuana grows easily. Simply scatter the seed on the soil, keep it moist, but dry.

You'll find the window box arrangement best for the housewife, but if you're planting it as a treat for the master of the house, a 4-foot tub on the patio is better. Thus every evening when he tours his estate he can breathe in the ennervating aroma. You'll save on cigars, too.

A stand of the smaller, dwarf variety is attractive for play yards. Nothing is so inspiring as a patch of marijuana waving in the breeze—it greatly resembles our fields of golden wheat at harvest time. But while the wheat has to be harvested, threshed and ground, marijuana is grown for its beauty alone.

OF COURSE, if you like, it can be used to make rope and twine, the oil can be used in soaps, paints and varnishes, and the fiber is often used to make sail cloth and coarse sheeting.

But we don't recommend it. This article is merely concerned with beautifying your house and money. If you're interested in money-making, read the financial garden—not with the making of pages.

Crime Wave In Area; Scout Jailed

Police this week announced that a crime wave is sweeping the area, with the arrests of more than 30 people, mostly old ladies, caught in the act of doing good deeds.

One old lady, Mrs. Pidia Linkem, age 68, was arrested for giving a little boy candy, and a Boy Scout is out on bail on a charge of helping an elderly person to cross a street.

A $100 donation to a local charity landed Bill Swigger in the hooscow yesterday. He had tried to perpetrate the deed anonymously by not signing the check, but officers traced the letter, and the angry charity institution, Good Riddance", signed a complaint.

SAID CHIEF Nathan Rubberhose, "The situation is almost out of control, and I am applying for the addition of 5000 new officers to our force.

"People have got to stop reading these salacious best sellers like the recent autobiography of Santa Claus, and instruction pamphlets on how to get ahead without hurting anybody's feelings."

He added, "They are affecting the moral fiber of the entire nation, and it's getting so bad nowadays that a man's word is as good as a contract."

"It wasn't this sort of spirit which built our country to what it is today.

"THINGS have improved some since Albert Sweitzer received a 99-year term for building that hospital in the jungle, but that's only the first step," he said.

Rubberhose warned, "Our officers have instructions to shoot if necessary when they see a good deed being perpetrated, and special warnings have been sent out to the Boy and Girl Scouts, Campfire, PTA's and other groups."

Lady Named Coach of Week

Mrs. Raymond Johnson was named the coach of the week after a balloting of sports writers and coaches of the area.

Mrs. Johnson has never missed a game and stated that her policy is one of letting every boy play. The score and winning or losing are unimportant—it's taking part that counts.

She has an innovation that is bound to prove to be popular with the fans in that girls will be able to try out, and means making the team as everyone should have an equal chance.

Team uniforms will be bright colors and individual fittings, and each can choose his or her own colors.

REFRESHMENTS WILL be served during time-outs. All workouts will be of 10-minutes duration with 15-minute rest periods.

Rules have been introduced which provide for a time out whenever a player is tired. Twelve men at a time will play on the baseball team, nine at a time in basketball and 15 on the football team, as this will give more players a chance to make All American.

Letter awards will be given to everyone and vary in size from three to four feet—to be determined by the height of the individual receiving the award.

DANCES WILL be held before and after practices as well as games so as to give the student a well-rounded life. Arrangements will be made to give all athletes A's and this will keep the whole school happy as everyone will be on a team and so everyone will receive top grades and as Mrs. Johnson put it, "My plan will solve a lot of problems."
